Our story

Marella means 'shining sea' in Celtic and beautifully captures who we are and what we do. It's the place we call home. It's where our spirit of adventure comes from. It's where our discoveries are made.

We sail to over 125 ports around the world, so whether it's ancient cities, tropical islands or culture-sprinkled coastlines, there's something new over every horizon.

With over two decades of sailing experience and TUI's holiday expertise under our belt, we're an established cruise line that takes 300,000 customers out into the big blue every year. You're at the heart of everything we do, and we take pride in our philosophy that has always put warm and welcome service first.

Sailing into Cyprus

Exciting news – Marella Discovery 2 will be calling Limassol, in Cyprus, home for summer 2025. You'll have three new itineraries to choose from, each one coming with direct flights from Dublin. And if you fancy an extra dose of relaxation, you'll be able to start or finish your trip with a seven-night stay in one of our handpicked hotels in Cyprus.

Page 44

Drinks with a difference

Our newest ship – Marella Voyager – is home to our first ever speakeasy-style bar.

The Exchange looks like it's been plucked straight out of the 1930s, and you can experience it for yourself on one of two themed events – The Heist or The Lock In. Each 90-minute experience includes live music, three premium cocktails and a few surprises.

Musical afternoon tea

The Great Musical Afternoon Tea is now a fixture across our entire fleet of ships. This weekly event brings the West End to Marella Cruises, with dishes inspired by famous musicals – like the 'Vietnamese Melody' beef tenderloin yakitori and the 'On My Own' petit choux. There are six teas to choose from, as well as a cocktail of your choice. Plus, the whole place is decorated with show posters and memorabilia. Secure your spot before you arrive onboard at marellacruisecontrol.tui.co.uk.

Better holidays, better world

We want our cruise holidays to benefit the places you love to visit. That's why we support TUI Care Foundation projects in our destinations that are improving the lives of young people, caring for the natural world, or helping local communities thrive. We also keep a close eye on our journeys and onboard practices to minimise our impact on the environment, including a 'say no to straws' policy to reduce plastic waste.

We're Which? recommended

We're proud to have recently been named as a recommended supplier of ocean cruises by Which? the consumer champion.

We achieved an overall customer satisfaction score of 81%, with customers describing our All Inclusive concept as great value for money. Our wide range of speciality restaurants also received plenty of praise, along with our top-quality onboard entertainment programme.

You're onto a winner

Here at Marella Cruises, we pride ourselves on our warm and welcoming service. But you don't just have to take our word for it – we've got some recent awards lining our trophy cabinet.

In 2023, we scooped two trophies at the Cruise Ship Interiors Awards, in collaboration with our design and outfitting partners. The Santorini Suite on Marella Voyager was named best suite, while The Electric Rooms – also on Marella Voyager – won the award for best public space on a large ship. And, on top of all that, Marella Voyager also won best ship refurbishment in the 2023 Cruise Critics Editors' Picks Awards.

Choose how you cruise

We're not ones to subscribe to the one-size-fits-all philosophy, which is why we've designed a number of ways for you to cruise. See how you can tailor-make your time away...

CRUISE & STAY

Where you see our 'add a stay' logo, you can follow up your cruise with three, four or seven nights in one of our expertly selected hotels near the home port. Or, flip the script with a hotel stay before setting sail.

You'll find everything you need to know about Cruise & Stay on page 10.

COMBINE CRUISES

When a week at sea just doesn't cut it, why not stay on board longer? Once your itinerary is over, you'll remain on the ship for the next one, opening up a whole new range of ports. Look out for the Combine Cruises logo to see which ones can be paired up.

ADULTS-ONLY CRUISES

You'll need to be 17 or over to step onboard one of our adults-only cruises. All of our transatlantic sailings are reserved for grown-ups. Meanwhile, Marella Explorer 2 is a completely adults-only ship, so all its sailings are child-free. Keep an eye out for the adults-only logo on our itineraries.

CABIN ONLY

If you prefer to arrange your own flights and transfers, book a cabin-only cruise. And don't worry, other than the journey, everything else is included in the price.

FLEXIBLE DURATIONS

With sailings that range from four to 18 nights, you can cruise for as little or as long as you like. Check out the Cruise Calendar in the back of the brochure to find a duration that suits you.

Get the kids onboard

Cruise & Stay

You don't have to spend your whole cruise holiday afloat. If you fancy extending your time away, why not combine your sailing with a stay at one of our hotels?

Our Cruise & Stay holidays give you the best of both worlds. Maybe you want to get to know the place where your cruise starts or ends? Perhaps you're after some extra downtime? Or, are you new to cruising and looking to combine it with your usual beach holiday?

Whatever the reason, it's a great excuse for two breaks in one. Spend a week cruising followed by three, four or seven nights in a hotel or apartment. Or, do it the other way around and stay for a week before setting sail.

You can choose from loads of top-notch hotels - from family-friendly, TUI BLUE resorts to swanky Platinum properties. Your hotel stay can be slotted in at either the start or the end of your trip. And you'll have a choice of durations - from, three to seven nights.

Places to stay range from budget-friendly hotels and family-focused properties to our adults-only collection.

Craft your perfect Cruise & Stay break

There are loads of properties to choose from, across four of Europe's top-rated destinations. So, you can soak up some sun in Tenerife or Cyprus, or get lost in quaint old towns in Majorca or Corfu.

Whichever Cruise & Stay holiday you pick, all of your transfers are included, so you won't need to worry about getting between the airport, the ship and your hotel. Plus, you'll have 24/7 access to our helpful TUI reps throughout your trip.

WHICH HOTEL TYPE IS RIGHT FOR YOU?

TUI BLUE

These hotels are designed with you in mind. They're all great for experiencing local culture. Plus, some really ramp up the family fun with the likes of kid-friendly pool scenes and restaurants with children's menus, while others are reserved exclusively for adults, which means peace and quiet's a given.

SMALL & FRIENDLY

If you're looking for something a little more personal, our Small & Friendly hotels might be just your cup of tea. These properties are mostly family-run, so you can expect an attentive approach with plenty of traditional touches. Some even throw in free car hire, making exploring your destination even easier.

PLATINUM

Our collection of Platinum hotels promise top quality stays. They're all rated 4T and 5T, and consistently score highly with our customers. Some are adults-only setups, while others are open to everyone. Whichever you go for, you can expect luxury touches like swish spas and à la carte restaurants.

Raise your glass

You'll find bars to suit all moods on our ships, whether you fancy dancing the night away or relaxing with a cocktail as you listen to some live music.

Every ship has a minimum of seven bars

Some drinks and facilities are chargeable.

GET THE PARTY STARTED

Each ship has a dedicated place to party. You can expect pianists to kickstart the evening at most of our party venues, followed by toe-tapping tunes from our popular resident bands. Later, there are dancefloor classics to get you up on your feet. All this is accompanied by speciality cocktails at the bar, not to mention a big range of on-tap beers.

At Indigo, on Marella Explorer and Marella Explorer 2, you can expect smoky cocktails and silent discos.

At The Electric Rooms, on Marella Voyager, you can show off your best moves on the new LED dancefloor and sip cocktails designed by The Bar Wizards from Britain's Got Talent.

PUB CLASSICS

Nothing beats a British pub. You can sample our take on the traditional British boozer at Squid and Anchor, which you'll find on all of our ships. There's an extensive selection of drinks to pick from, plus regular quiz nights and live music to keep you entertained. On Marella Explorer and Marella Explorer 2, this venue's set up with two bars – and one of them specialises in premium gins and whiskies.

SOPHISTICATED DRINKS

Throughout our ships, you'll find a series of classy spots where you can sip a flute of bubbles or a tasty cocktail. Chocolate espresso martini, anyone? Flutes, on Marella Explorer 2 and Marella Voyager, is a real highlight. This place specialises in Champagne and Prosecco, poured to the sound of a live pianist. And, there are handy 'press for bubbles' buttons dotted around.

Bar Eleven, meanwhile, on Marella Discovery and Marella Discovery 2, is right at the top of the ship, so speciality cocktails are served up alongside unbeatable views.

GAMES GALORE

If your idea of a good night out is more about putting on your thinking cap, rather than your dancing shoes, our quizzes and interactive game shows will be right up your street. Then there's The 19th Hole, our golf-themed bar on Marella Explorer 2. Here, dedicated hosts organise fun challenges and tournaments on a state-of-the-art golf simulator. You can also try your luck at our casinos – they put on competitions, plus you can ask our croupiers about lessons for beginners.

Come dine with us

When it comes to dining with Marella Cruises, it's all about choice. From tapas and sushi to steaks and design-your-own pizzas, each ship has at least seven restaurants for you to pick from, including buffets and speciality eateries. Here's what to expect when you dine on board...

FLEXIBILITY

We know you like the flexibility to dine when and where you want. This is why all our ships have a minimum of seven restaurants. And it's also why most of our restaurants have flexible dining times and open seating policies.

It doesn't stop there, either. You can tempt your taste buds with cuisine from all over the world – from Spanish tapas and pan-Asian dishes to gourmet French fare and traditional British favourites.

INCLUDED DINING

You can expect at least four restaurants included as standard – but there can be as many as six. All of our ships – except for Marella Voyager – have a buffet restaurant which is open for breakfast, lunch and dinner. On Marella Voyager, the buffet's been replaced by The Kitchens – a food hall made up of eight different eateries. Their menus include everything from roast dinners to Asian curries, so you can opt for something different every day.

You'll also find a waiter service restaurant on hand for all three meals, where you can order from a daily menu. There are pizzerias and grab-and-go options, too. Whichever ship you pick, you'll never go hungry, thanks to the snack bars and midnight buffets, which are also included as standard.

SPECIALITY RESTAURANTS

Along with our included eateries, you can pay to dine in our speciality restaurants. Each ship has at least three to choose from.

There's our signature pan-Asian restaurant, Kora La, where you can pick from exotic dishes like Indonesian beef rendang curry or crispy duck with watermelon salad. New to Marella Voyager, there's Silver Fork, which serves British classics with a modern twist. Or, for something extra special, you can look forward to high-end French cuisine at The Dining Club, which you'll find onboard Marella Explorer and Marella Explorer 2.

BEFORE YOU GO

CAN I RESERVE A PARTICULAR CABIN NUMBER AHEAD OF MY CRUISE?

Yes. You can take a look at our deck plan when booking and choose a cabin from just €80. If you don't do this at the time of booking, just give us a call after to reserve a cabin.

DO I NEED A VISA FOR MY CRUISE?

Depending on where you're sailing to, you may need a visa. Visit cibtvisas.co.uk/marella for information.

HOW DO YOU LOOK AFTER SOLO TRAVELLERS?

Get-togethers are organised for solo travellers, like dinners and coffee mornings – check Cruise News or the Navigate app for details. If you'd rather not dine alone, have a chat with the ship's restaurant manager, who'll make sure you're seated with other guests.

DO YOU CATER FOR DISABILITIES?

Of course. Just give our Assisted Travel Team a call before you book and they can advise you on things like ship accessibility, bringing equipment on board, disabled facilities and medical care. We've also teamed up with AccessAble to provide detailed guides for all of our ships. All of our ships have a small number of adapted cabins for less mobile passengers. If you require an adapted cabin, please remember to make sure one is definitely available before you book.

Making sure your wellbeing is looked after at all times while you're on board is really important to us. That's why if you need help with daily tasks, like using the bathroom, eating, or moving around the ship, you'll need to travel with a companion or a personal assistant who can help you. Unfortunately, our crew aren't able to help with these kinds of responsibilities.

WHAT TYPE OF PLUG SOCKETS ARE IN THE CABINS?

The sockets will need either a European or a US two-pin adaptor in the cabins on our ships.

DO YOU CATER FOR SPECIAL DIETS?

Of course. If you've got any dietary requirements, mention it when you book and let the restaurant manager know once you're on board. We also provide vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free, dairy-free, and diabetic-friendly options on request.

HOW DO I CHECK IN FOR MY CRUISE?

The lead passenger on your booking will be sent instructions on how to check in online at marellacruisecontrol.tui.co.uk. You'll need to provide your passport information, any dietary and medical requirements, and register a debit or credit card. Once this information's been entered, and before you travel, you'll need to download and print your cruise boarding pass and luggage labels. For more information, flick to page 88.

WHAT IF I THINK OF SOMETHING ELSE?

If there's anything else you want to know, give our team a call on 01 693 7700 or speak to a Travel Expert in your local TUI Store. You'll find more information on the A-Z guide at the back of this brochure. You can also ask a question on our Marella Cruises Facebook page, or visit tui.co.uk/cruise/onboard-experience.

WHAT SHOULD I PACK?

Pool and bath towels are provided and every cabin has a hairdryer. If you need to stock up on essentials, our onboard shops sell things like toothpaste. It's a good idea to bring a light jacket with you, as there's often a strong sea breeze.

The onboard dress code varies for each restaurant, but you can easily break it down into Beachwear, Casual and Smart. The first is a come-as-you-are affair, so bikinis and trunks get the thumbs up, but please wear something on your feet for safety reasons. Casual, meanwhile, speaks for itself – we're talking tops and shorts or a sundress. Then you've got Smart, which is when you'll need to dress up a little bit. You can wear shirts or polo-shirts, trousers or tailored shorts, skirts or dresses, smart trainers, shoes or sandals, but we ask that you leave sportswear, flip-flops and non-tailored shorts in your cabin. If you want to add a jacket or a tie, that's completely up to you, but our Dress to Impress nights give you the chance to get really suited and booted.

Finally, if you book any excursions, you might need to adhere to certain dress codes. Islamic countries have strict modesty laws, so, in certain areas, you'll need to cover your shoulders and knees. When visiting mosques or other holy sites, women may be required to cover their hair, arms and legs, and men will need to wear long trousers and a top with sleeves.

WHAT DO I DO WITH MY LUGGAGE?

Some of our cruise destinations offer a bonded luggage service. This means your checked luggage will be taken straight to your cabin, so there's no need to collect your bags when you land. If your cruise includes this, we'll let you know via your booking confirmation.

DURING YOUR CRUISE

HOW DO I PAY FOR THINGS ONBOARD?

We operate a cashless system on all of our ships. Everything is priced in pounds sterling, but you can charge it all to your cabin account as you go. Your account can then be settled by credit or debit card at the end of your cruise. You can find out how much you've spent so far at any point during your holiday directly through our onboard app, Navigate, or by using one of the self-service kiosks that are dotted around the ship.

IS WI-FI AVAILABLE?

There's Wi-Fi in all areas of our ships, so it's easy to stay connected. Internet access is charged to your cabin account at the rate advertised onboard. Mobiles can also be used on all of our ships, and there are telephones in each cabin, so it's easy to stay in touch with people back home. If you're pairing your cruise with a stay in one of our hotels, we'll let you know which places have free Wi-Fi.

DO I NEED TO TIP?

No. Unlike most cruise lines, we don't think tips and service charges should cost you extra, so we've included them in the price. You're not expected to tip any of our crew – unless you want to, of course.

CAN I SMOKE ONBOARD?

All our ships are non-smoking, which means you can only smoke in designated areas of the open deck – this includes the use of e-cigarettes. Smoking isn't permitted on cabin balconies, either. In some countries, e-cigarettes are banned and may be confiscated. You can visit gov.uk/foreign-travel-advice to check the rules of the countries you'll be sailing to.

WHAT TIME DO I HAVE TO CHECK OUT OF MY CABIN?

You'll normally need to leave your cabin between 8am and 9am on your last day, but the onboard team will let you know. You can still use all the onboard facilities until your transfer arrives. Plus, you can speak to Reception about a late checkout, or a courtesy cabin to freshen up in before you head off.

HOW DO I FIND OUT ABOUT ONBOARD ACTIVITIES?

You can find everything from entertainment schedules to restaurant and bar opening times on our Navigate App. This free onboard app also lets you book excursions, spa treatments and restaurants. If you don't have a smartphone or tablet, you'll find daily schedules and times in Cruise News.

WHAT CAN I DO DURING MY DAYS AT SEA?

Take a look at our entertainment pages for a rundown of activities. There's a bit extra laid on during our transatlantic cruises, too – we offer a special programme of onboard classes and entertainment. You can expect things like guest speakers, ukulele sessions and watercolour lessons. Look out for the extra entertainment logo on the itinerary pages for the sailings these apply to.

WHAT IS A TENDER PORT?

It's not always possible to tie a ship up at a dock, so sometimes we anchor a little way out from the shore, and use tender boats to get you to the shore. Where possible, tender ports are marked on itineraries with an asterisk. You'll still get plenty of time in the port, plus you can use the tender services to go back and forth from the ship as much as you like. For guests with disabilities or mobility issues, please bear in mind you'll need to have some independent mobility to step in and out of the tender boat. Unfortunately, our crew aren't allowed to lift you. See the Assisted Travel section in the A-Z Guide for more information.

ARE SHUTTLE BUSES AVAILABLE?

If we're not able to dock close to the port entrance, it might be a short walk or a bus ride to the gates. At some ports, there will be a shuttle bus to take you there and back. In some cases, there are also shuttle buses to take you between the port and the town or city centre. Just so you know, you might have to pay to use these services.

WHAT IF THE PORT ISN'T IN THE DESTINATION OF INTEREST?

Some of our ports are a little way out from the main destination of interest – for example, for Seville, we dock in the coastal city of Cadiz. When this is the case, the best way to explore is via our shore excursions. You can book our excursions and 'on your own' transfers before your cruise. They're subject to availability.

The icing on the cake

So, you've booked your cruise and you're counting down the days until the ship sets sail. In the meantime, we've got loads of ways to make your holiday even more special. Take a look...

CHOOSE YOUR CABIN

Want a cabin that's close to the lifts, at the front of the ship, or one that comes with a balcony? From just €80, you can select your cabin number in advance. Just take a look at the deck plans when booking and choose your preferred cabin. If you don't do this at the time of booking, you can give us a call with your preference.

FLIGHT UPGRADES

If you're cruising from one of our exotic long-haul destinations, splash out for a seat in the Premium cabin on board your flight. You'll get extras including bigger, comfier seats, priority boarding and more. On shorter flights, there's still the option to choose seats with extra legroom or extra space. And, we can help you sort out pre-flight extras, like airport parking, hotels and lounges.

SURPRISE, SURPRISE

If you know someone who's got a cruise booked and you want to treat them to any of the onboard extras, we can sort it out for a small admin fee. We can arrange for whatever you choose to be waiting in the cabin, or delivered at a time of your choice – with the exception of cakes, which are brought out at the restaurant. Just give us a call with the travellers' booking details to hand.

A LITTLE SOMETHING EXTRA

Whether you're celebrating a special occasion, or you just fancy treating yourself, there are lots of ways we can spoil you.

SAY IT WITH FLOWERS

We can arrange flower bouquets.

SET SAIL IN STYLE

Have a bottle of sparkling wine waiting in your cabin on arrival.

UP THE ROMANCE FACTOR

Arrive to a chilled bottle of Champagne and chocolate-dipped strawberries.

CUT THE CAKE

We'll bring out a celebration cake after a meal.

START THE DAY WITH A TOAST

You can have a Champagne breakfast brought to your cabin.

CELEBRATE IN STYLE PACKAGE

If you really want to push the boat out, our Celebrate in Style package gets you all of this:

- A bottle of Champagne, chocolate-dipped strawberries and a bouquet of fresh flowers waiting for you in your cabin on arrival
- Breakfast in bed on a day of your choice
- A cake, a souvenir photo and a Cruise News announcement

For more details, or to book, call 0203 451 2963.

CELEBRATION OF VOWS

Cruising provides a romantic backdrop for our Celebration of Vows service. There are three different packages to choose from – Silver, Gold and Platinum.

Whichever one you pick, you can expect a service conducted by the captain or a senior officer, a Musical Afternoon Tea session, a sparkling wine toast, a cake, a bouquet of flowers, a buttonhole, a professional photograph, and a bottle of Champagne. You'll also get a discount to spend in selected onboard shops.

Opt for the Gold package, and you'll get extras like a handwritten card from the captain, chocolate-dipped strawberries and three pressed items per person.

On top of this, you'll also be treated to a meal in one of our speciality restaurants Kora La or Surf and Turf Steakhouse.

Choose Platinum, meanwhile, and you'll get everything the Gold package includes, as well as a couples' massage at the spa and pictures taken by one of our onboard photographers. Plus, you'll be able to enjoy a Champagne Musical Afternoon Tea session, breakfast in bed with Champagne, and invite to exclusive onboard event.

MAX OUT YOUR HOLIDAY

Book a Cruise & Stay holiday to Corfu, Turkey, Cyprus or Dubrovnik and you can extend your trip with 3 or 7 nights in one of our hotels or apartments.

Thira, Santorini

Santorini's glamorous capital's famous for its whitewashed sugar-cube buildings and dramatic volcanic landscapes.

MUST-SEE: Check out Bronze Age artefacts at the Museum of Prehistoric Thira.

MUST-TRY: Sip local wine in one of the tavernas in the main square.

TOP TIP: Ride the cable car to Santorini's old port for some of the best views around.

Kusadasi, Turkey

You'll find Kusadasi on Turkey's west coast, with a selection of sandy beaches and Roman sights up its sleeve.

MUST-SEE: Take a trip to Ephesus, a 3,000-year-old Greek city that's loaded with ruins.

MUST-TRY: Tuck in to a sesame-seed-covered simit, Turkey's take on a bagel.

TOP TIP: Treat yourself to a pampering session at an authentic Turkish bath.

Mykonos Town, Mykonos

Trips to Mykonos Town revolve around beach clubs, windmills and 18th-century mansions-turned-museums.

MUST-SEE: Visit Kato Milli, a collection of traditional, ice-white windmills that look out over the coast.

MUST-TRY: Sip on a glass of tsipouro, an aniseed-flavoured brandy.

TOP TIP: Tick off Mykonos' most-famous landmarks with a tour around the island.

Piraeus, Greece

Piraeus is your gateway to Greece's capital, Athens. Here, maze-like street markets sit in the shadow of the city's ancient centrepiece, the hilltop Acropolis.

MUST-SEE: Stroll around the Parthenon, a giant temple that dates back to 447 BC.

MUST-TRY: Spanakopita, a popular spinach-and-cheese-filled pastry.

TOP TIP: Stretch your legs at the National Garden – it spreads out for almost 40 acres.

Split, Croatia

Split is Croatia's second-biggest city, and packs boatloads of shops, bistros and age-old attractions into its UNESCO-backed centre.

MUST-SEE: Visit the 1,300-year-old Klis Fortress – it had a starring role in Game of Thrones.

MUST-TRY: Refuel with a bowl of sweet-and-sour beef stew.

TOP TIP: Split boasts a serious café culture, so you'll want to remember the Croatian word for coffee, kava.

Valletta, Malta

Valletta's a small capital city with a big personality. This place really lays on the history and culture, and you've got excellent shopping and eating, too.

MUST-SEE: Check out Caravaggio's handiwork at St John's Co-Cathedral.

MUST-TRY: Try widow's soup, a hearty vegetable broth – it's cheap, healthy and served everywhere.

TOP TIP: There are no sandy beaches around, but you can sunbathe on the rocks between the Sliema ferry and the Jews' Sally Port.

Welcome aboard Marella Explorer 2

There's a suitably grown-up feel to this adults-only ship. We've cherry-picked some of the facilities from its sister ship Marella Explorer, like The Dining Club and Indigo Bar, Club and Casino. But there are some special one-offs, too, like themed bars and eateries.

A cover charge applies at some of our venues, these are all marked with a £ symbol

Taste

NONNA'S

Made-to-order pizza and pasta dishes are up for grabs at this place, which is open for lunch and dinner.

Our chefs whip up dishes from around the world at this buffet restaurant. It's made up of lots of different food stalls, including a Spanish tapas spot – think croquetas and patatas bravas.

LATITUDE 53

The main waiter service restaurant is a good-looking dining venue that's open for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Meal-wise, expect traditional British dishes with a modern twist.

VISTA

You'll find Vista on Deck 5, in Latitude 53. Come evening, it transforms into a contemporary Italian restaurant, complete with a menu that's loaded with regional favourites made with authentic ingredients.

There's a charge to dine here and we recommend you make a reservation.

You'll feel like you've switched continents when you dine at this restaurant. Oriental-style lanterns and paintings are paired with a pan-Asian menu of curries and noodle dishes. There's a separate sushi menu, too. There's a charge to dine here and we recommend you make a reservation.

Kora La

Marella Explorer's the biggest ship in our fleet, so it goes without saying that the facilities are first-class. A cover charge applies at some of our venues, these are all marked with a £ symbol

Taste

THE MEDITERRANEAN

If you can't decide on what cuisine to go for, this is the place to come. It's a three-in-one deal with areas inspired by Italian, Spanish and Portuguese dishes. There's also a bar with an al fresco terrace.

THE MARKET PLACE

You can watch the chefs whip up dishes from around the world at this buffet restaurant. It's made up of lots of different food stalls, hence its name, The Market Place.

LATITUDE 53

The main waiter service restaurant is a good-looking dining venue, with a gold-and-grey colour scheme and striking, floor-to-ceiling windows. Menu-wise, you can expect modern dishes with a twist, as well as some British favourites.

VISTA

You'll find Vista on Deck 5, in Latitude 53. Come evening, it transforms into a contemporary Italian restaurant, complete with a menu that's loaded with regional favourites made with authentic ingredients.

Scoops

POOL

The pool is split in two by a stage in the middle, which is where the entertainment team run their daily activities from.

Our agreement with you, and yours with us

Our Agreement with You

We are TUI Holidays Ireland Limited with registered number 116977, and we hold the tour operators license number T.O.272 issued by the Irish Aviation Authority and, as a requirement, have arranged an approved secured bond. Our registered office address is One Spencer Dock, North Wall Quay, Dublin 1, Ireland. Our Agreement With You sets out what you are legally entitled to expect from us when you buy a Package Holiday from us and will not apply to any course of dealings between us other than the Package Holiday booked. The Package Holiday as advertised by us but may also have restrictions set out in our A-Z Guide which should also be read carefully. Because we sell a wide variety of Package Holidays, you should read our A-Z Guide and these terms and conditions carefully, before you book, to see how they affect your specific travel arrangements made by us.

1. Your Travel Booking

Whether you book alone or as a group, we will only deal with the lead booking name in all subsequent correspondence, including changes, amendments and cancellations. You must be 18 years old at the time of booking and possess the legal capacity and authority to book as the lead name and travel on holidays with us and take up the offers advertised by us if they are still available. You are responsible for ensuring the accuracy of the personal details or any other information supplied in respect of yourself and any other person travelling on the booking and for passing on any information regarding the booking or any changes made in relation thereto, to all persons travelling on such booking, including but not limited to information on schedule changes or copies of booking confirmations. In addition, if your holiday includes a flight, you are also responsible for (a) notifying us prior to the time of booking of any personal circumstances and needs pertaining to a person included in the booking including, without limitation, whether any such person is not self reliant or is a person with reduced mobility - for example if you, or a member of your party, have difficulty in walking 500 metres; and (b) notifying us at any time from the time of booking until 48 hours prior to the flight's departure by calling our call centre if any person travelling on the booking has ceased to be self reliant or a person with reduced mobility or if a person previously reported to be with reduced mobility or as not being self reliant does no longer fall into either category.

It is a condition of your booking with us that you and all other members of your party, including infants and children, are adequately insured on holiday. Any person who is under 18 years old must be accompanied by an adult on his or her journey. There may be other restrictions and conditions on some offers, but these are explained in the details of those offers. When you or (if you are booking through a travel agent) your travel agent ask for your booking to be confirmed, we will confirm the booking there and then, and set aside your chosen accommodation, holiday or transport for you. Next, we will send you or your travel agent a Confirmation Invoice within 14 days. We may not be able to confirm some of our ground arrangements straight away (e.g. bespoke accommodation, tours etc). In these instances we may issue a Confirmation Invoice. However, a contract for arrangements that have not been confirmed on that invoice will only be made when we have sent you written confirmation that those additional arrangements have been completed. If there is any change to any of the details discussed at the time of booking, before the Confirmation Invoice is issued, we will notify you promptly of any new or changed details, including a change to the total price (if any). If any detail on the Confirmation Invoice is not correct tell us or your travel agent immediately. If there is an obvious error on the Confirmation Invoice we reserve the right to correct it as soon as we become aware of it, but we will do this within 7 days of issuing the Confirmation Invoice or, if your departure is within 7 days, no later than 24 hours before you go. If any of these changes are not acceptable then you will be entitled to a full refund. The contractual terms of Our Agreement apply between you and us because you have chosen a Package Holiday with us (hereafter, a "holiday") which is a 'package' within the meaning of The Package Travel, Package Holidays and Package Tours Regulations 1992 and will enjoy the benefits conferred by it. We may transfer your booking to another company in our group, but this will have no effect on your holiday arrangements.

2. The Price You Pay

All prices we advertise are accurate at the date published, but we reserve the right to change any of those prices from time to time. Prices include a cost for fuel that was estimated at the date of this publication. We reserve the right to add a fuel supplement to holiday prices should this increase after the date of this publication. Prices can go up or down. We will be able to tell you or your travel agent the up-to-date price of your chosen travel arrangements and of any other services advertised by us before confirming your booking. We reserve the right to increase the price of your holiday after you have booked but no later than 30 days before the departure date stipulated and will forward an Amendment Invoice reflecting any changes made. After a Confirmation Invoice has been sent to you, any increase to your holiday price will be as the result of changes in our costs of supplying your holiday resulting from transportation charges, (fuel, airport charges, scheduled air fares and other transport charges which form part of our contract with the transport provider), currency fluctuations and government action. An administration charge and any relevant travel agent's commission is included within these amounts. If the increase would be 2% or less of the holiday price shown on your Confirmation Invoice (excluding insurance premiums and any amendment charges), we will absorb the changes in our costs described above and will only pass on any increase above that level. If any change in our costs would cause a reduction in your holiday price, we will not make refunds of amounts less than 2% of your holiday price (calculated as above), but we will refund in full amounts exceeding such 2%, after deducting an administration charge of €1.

If the increase is more than 10% of the holiday price (calculated as above), then:

1. You may cancel your holiday booking within 14 days of the Amendment Invoice date and receive a refund of all monies paid to us except any amendment charges; we will only consider an appropriate refund of insurance premium paid if you can show us that you are unable to transfer or re-use your policy; and
2. the increase will be considered a Major Change as described in section 4 below and, unless you choose to cancel under paragraph 1 above, you will be entitled to the alternatives set out in section 4 for those circumstances, but in either case you will receive compensation in accordance with section 4.

The price quoted on the last Amendment Invoice issued is guaranteed, unless you change your holiday booking. Any increases in our costs which occur after the last Amendment Invoice has been sent will be borne by us. Should you instruct your credit/debit card company to "charge back" any payment(s) properly due from you in respect of your booking, we will charge you a fee of approx €10 per incident and associated costs. We further reserve the right to cancel your booking and/or take legal action against you for all outstanding payment(s).

3. If We Cancel Your Booking

We aim to provide your holiday as booked. But if, for example, there are not enough people booked on your holiday or you do not pay the balance of the holiday price on time, we may cancel it. We reserve the right to cancel your holiday in any circumstances but if we cancel your holiday, except where this is because you have not paid, you can either have a refund or accept a replacement holiday from us of equivalent or similar standard and price (if we are able to offer you one). We may offer you a replacement holiday from another company in our group. Should you choose this option the terms and conditions of your holiday will not change and these conditions will still apply to your booking. In either case, we will pay you compensation, using the scale shown (unless we cancel your holiday because you do not pay us the balance of the holiday price or because of one of the events listed in the 'Important Note – Events Beyond Our Control') and we will always refund the difference in price if the replacement holiday is of a lower standard and price. We will not cancel your holiday after the balance due date, unless this is the result of one of the events in the 'Important Note – Events Beyond Our Control'.

4. If We Change Your Booking Details

We hope that we will not have to make any change to your holiday but, because our holidays are planned many months in advance, we sometimes do need to make changes. We reserve the right to do this at any time. We will let you or your travel agent know about any important changes when you book. If you have already booked, we will let you know as soon as we can, if there is time before your departure. Flight timings shown by us are for guidance only and may change. Occasionally it may be necessary to change the aircraft type for your flight, which may mean that some facilities such as in-flight entertainment or the advertised seat pitch may not be available. Where we are unable to provide a seat option that you have paid for we will refund the amount you have paid. Your Confirmation Invoice will show the latest planned timings. Your actual flight timings will be shown on your ticket (including any e ticket itinerary), which you should check carefully as soon as you receive it.

Major Changes To Your Holiday

Occasionally, we have to make major changes to the flight or accommodation making up your holiday with us. Major changes to your holiday for which we will pay compensation unless the change is for reasons beyond our control (see 'Important Note – Events Beyond Our Control'), using the scale shown, may include the following changes: a significant change of destination, a change in accommodation to that of a lower category, a change in the time of your departure or return flight by more than 12 hours, a change of departure airport. A delay to your flight that we need to make within 24 hours before you are due to depart will not be considered a major change unless the delay is going to be for more than 24 hours. These changes are examples only and there may be other significant changes which constitute major changes. If we tell you about any of these changes after we have confirmed your holiday booking, you may either:

- accept the new arrangements offered by us; or
- accept a replacement holiday from us of equivalent or closely similar standard and price, at the date of the change (we'll always refund the difference in price if the replacement holiday is a lower price at the date of the change), if we are able to offer you one. We may offer you a replacement holiday from another company in our group. Should you choose this option the terms and conditions of your holiday will not change and these conditions will still apply to your booking; or
- cancel your holiday with us and receive a full refund of all monies paid.

If we make a major change, and you choose to cancel your holiday and receive a full refund, we will pay you compensation using the Compensation table shown, unless the change is for reasons beyond our control (see the 'Important Note – Events Beyond Our Control'). This standard payment will not affect your statutory or other legal rights. We will only make one payment for each full-fare-paying adult in the holiday booking. Any children not paying the full adult fare will receive 50% of these amounts. Children using a free child place will not receive any standard payment.

Compensation
Any compensation payable will be on these scales, based on how many days before your booked holiday departure we tell you of a major change.
Period before departure when a major change is notified	Compensation payable per person
84 days or more	€0
83-29 days	€30
28-15 days	€40
14-8 days	€50
7-0 days	€100

Our agreement with you, and yours with us

If the change is not acceptable to you

If any major change indicated above is not acceptable to you, you can cancel your holiday booking. In this case, we will refund all the money you have paid us and will pay you compensation, as shown above, depending on how many days before your holiday we tell you about this change, unless the change is for reasons beyond our control (see 'Important Note - Events Beyond Our Control'). This standard payment will not affect your statutory or other legal rights.

Important note – events beyond our control

Events beyond our control include but are not limited to: war, threat of war, riots, civil disturbances, terrorist activity and its consequences, industrial disputes, any failure to secure relevant flying rights, natural and nuclear disasters, fire, epidemics, health risks and pandemics, unavoidable and unforeseeable technical problems with transport for reasons beyond our control or that of our suppliers; closed or congested airports or ports, hurricanes and other actual or potential severe weather conditions, and any other similar events.

In February 2005 a new Europe-wide law relating to denied boarding, delays and cancellation of flights came into force. This law granted rights to passengers including in certain circumstances the right to cancel their flight and receive reimbursement of the cost of the flight from their airline. Full details of these rights is publicised at EU airports and is also available from affected airlines. However, you should note that reimbursement of the cost of a flight that forms part of your holiday is the responsibility of your holiday airline and will not automatically entitle you to reimbursement of the cost of your holiday from us.

6. Our Responsibility For Your Holiday

We will arrange for you to receive the services that make up the holiday that you choose and that we confirm. These services will be provided either directly by us or through independent suppliers contracted by us. Except where we are a Booking Agent we are responsible for making sure that each part of the holiday you book with us is provided to a reasonable standard and as was advertised by us (or as changed and accepted by you). If any part of your holiday is not provided as described, we will pay you compensation, if appropriate, unless this is due to reasons beyond our control (see the 'Important Note – Events Beyond Our Control').

We have taken all reasonable care to make sure that all the services which make up the holidays advertised by us are provided by efficient and reputable businesses. These businesses should follow local standards. However, overseas safety standards are generally lower than at home, for example few hotels yet meet EC fire safety recommendations even in Europe.

7. Personal Injury

If you suffer injury, illness or death directly as a result of the services provided as part of your holiday, we may make a payment to you. We will not make any payment if your injury, illness or death was caused by an event or circumstances which the person who caused it could not have predicted or avoided even if they had taken all necessary and due care. We will not make any payment if your illness, injury or death was your own fault. If we do make a payment, it will be similar to one you would receive under Irish law in an Irish court.

1. You must tell us and the supplier involved about your injury or illness and complete a report form while you are in the resort (see section 13). You should also write to our After Travel Customer Support at the address given in our A-Z Guide about your claim within 3 months of coming home from your holiday to allow us to investigate it properly and co-operate with us so as to enable us to carry out such investigation. Please include a letter about your injury or illness from your doctor.
 2. You should transfer to us any rights you have against the supplier or any other person.
 3. You should co-operate fully with us if we or our insurers want to enforce those rights.
 4. Any payments we make may be limited in accordance with international conventions. We ask you to transfer your rights to us so that we can claim back from suppliers any payments we make to you, plus any legal or other costs. We will not make a profit from this. If we get back from the supplier more than we have paid you plus these costs, we will give the extra money to you.
- If you or someone on your holiday booking is injured, falls ill or dies while taking part in an activity which is not part of the holiday, or you need to incur unpredictable extra expenses for which we are not liable because the event is beyond our control (see 'Important Note – Events Beyond Our Control') we will, where appropriate and subject to our discretion, try to help if we can. We may help everyone on your holiday booking up to a total cost to us of €5,000 as long as the following conditions are met:
1. You must ask us for help within three months of coming back from holiday.
 2. You must make a claim under your insurance policy's legal expenses or other appropriate section.
You must show us proof that your insurance company has received your claim and, if you get back the cost of legal or other expenses, you must repay us any money we have spent in helping you.

8. Excursions

From time to time we may introduce you to reputable third party suppliers of excursions or other leisure services. If you choose to enter into a contract for the provision of excursions or other leisure services, your contract will be with that supplier directly and we act only in the capacity of an agent, and therefore would have no liability for the proper performance of that contract. The terms and conditions in this "Our Agreement With You" will not apply to any contract for the provision of excursions or other leisure services.

Our agreement with you, and yours with us

Your Agreement with Us

9. Your Contract

By asking us or your travel agent to confirm your booking, you are accepting on behalf of all persons travelling on this booking that the terms of this Agreement, which incorporate the information, restrictions and obligations set out in our A-Z Guide, and the conditions of any terms and conditions of carriage – see Conditions of Your Ticket – constitute the entire agreement between us with regard to your booking and your travel arrangements. You also consent to our processing personal information about you and other members of your party. Where the context permits, reference to “you” and “your” will include you and all persons travelling on this booking. Your contract with us shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of The Republic of Ireland. You agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of The Republic of Ireland over any claim or matter arising under or in connection with your contract with us. It is a condition of booking that you and all members of your party provide certain information that may be sent to governmental authorities and border control and security agencies for the purpose of security and counter terrorism. This is known as Advanced Passenger Information, sometimes known as APIS. The information you must provide will include, but not be limited to, full name as shown on your passport or travel document, gender, date of birth, travel document type, number, country of issue and expiry date, and for travel to the United States, your country of residence and address for your first night’s stay. It is your responsibility to comply with all passport, visa and other immigration requirements. Your passport and travel documents must be intact; you may be refused travel if they are damaged or have been tampered with. We do not accept any responsibility if you cannot travel because you have not complied with these requirements.

10. Paying For Your Travel Arrangements

You will be required to pay a deposit to us for each person when you book unless this is within 10 weeks of departure when the full amount for the booking is payable. The deposit amount will be specified by us or your travel agent when your booking is made. If it is not specified then it will be the amount that we ask you to pay when you book, even if this is 100% of the holiday price. If you pay less than the deposit under a low deposit booking scheme, then this is only part of the deposit referred to in this paragraph. The remaining deposit will be due on cancellation or date specified at time of booking or on your confirmation invoice. Please note your booking deposit may be increased or there may be a charge payable for some accommodation, holidays or flight bookings where it is necessary to secure specific facilities with full payment at the time of booking e.g. weddings, coach touring and specific types of airline tickets. Once confirmed, the booking deposit, additional charges paid and insurance premiums will not be refunded in the event of cancellation except in the circumstances specified in Sections 2, 3 or 4 or as otherwise required by law. This is your only commitment until 10 weeks before you go. Within two weeks of booking, we will send you a Confirmation Invoice showing how much you owe us. You must pay the amount on the last Invoice issued by us, at least 10 weeks before you go on holiday. If you don’t, we reserve the right to treat your booking as cancelled and to charge you a cancellation charge up to 100% of the total on that last Invoice, in accordance with the scale in section 12. If you pay money for your booking to a travel agent appointed by us, they will hold that money as our agent from the time they receive it until they pay the money to us. Telephone bookings may incur an additional charge, check at time of booking. We do not accept personal cheques, only building society and bankers’ drafts will be accepted. To pay by direct debit, the direct debit needs to be set up before the booking is confirmed. We will provide you with a confirmation setting out the payment amounts and due dates by which these payments will be made by you. The full payment will be required by 14 weeks before you go on holiday. In the event of two failed attempts to collect any direct debit payment we will cancel the direct debit mandate and you will be required to make payment by another method. The Tour Operator deposit value is due if the booking or direct debit is cancelled before instalments are paid.

11. If You Change Your Booking, And After Acceptance By Us

1. You must ensure all names and details are entered correctly at the time of booking. You will receive an invoice once your booking is confirmed and must contact us straight away if there is something that you need to correct, or if you don’t receive an invoice within 7 days of confirming your booking.
2. Subject to Section 11.4, you may transfer your booking to another person, providing the following conditions are met:
 - You authorise the change in writing
 - The new lead passenger accepts the transfer and the terms of Our Agreement
 - That person complies with the terms of the existing booking
 - That person has valid holiday insurance. You cannot transfer your insurance to the new lead passenger.We’ll charge amendment fees to change a name on a booking outside of 14 days to departure; these will be added to the new invoice. The new lead passenger, and you, should they fail to pay, will be responsible for the payment of any balance due on that new invoice.
3. We charge an ‘Amendment Fee’ for each detail of your booking we allow you to change, see guide to our amendment fees table below. Please note that more major changes, including, but not limited to, travelling later than planned, changes which lower the basic price of your holiday, and changes which result in your holiday ceasing to be a Package Holiday will be treated as a cancellation and incur the appropriate charges in line with Section 12.
4. Please bear in mind that certain airlines and other transport providers treat changes as a cancellation and charge accordingly, up to 100% of the cost for that part of the arrangement. Where applicable these charges will be passed on to you.
5. When changing your holiday details, the price of your new travel arrangements will be based on the price that applies on the day you make the change. These may not be - the same as when you first booked.

- Some accommodation is priced according to the number of people staying there. If your party size changes, we’ll recalculate your booking cost based on the new number of people going. If fewer people share the accommodation, then the cost per person may go up. This extra cost isn’t a cancellation charge, and it isn’t normally covered by insurance.
6. Some arrangements cannot be removed once they have been added to your booking. These include: transfers, flight options, children’s activities, accommodation options such as room/board upgrades and late checkout rooms. Certain extras, such as excursions, theme park tickets and airport extras may be non-refundable. We will make this clear when you book those arrangements, please check with us if you are unsure at the time of booking.
 7. Please bear in mind that certain airlines (eg. for scheduled airfares) and other transport providers treat changes as a cancellation and charge accordingly, up to 100% of the cost for that part of the arrangement. As these charges will be passed on to you, we recommend that you ask for details of our cancellation/amendment charges when you book, and remember to check your insurance policy to see if you’d be covered for the cost of any cancellation charges that may apply to your arrangements.

12. If You Cancel Your Booking

If you want to cancel your booking or part of it, you must contact us as soon as possible. If you have made your booking through a Travel Agency, your agent must advise us of your request to cancel. Once your booking has been cancelled you can expect to receive a cancellation invoice within 14 days. If you do not then please contact us. To cover the cost of processing your cancellation and to compensate us for the risk that we may not be able to resell your travel arrangements, we’ll make a cancellation charge on the scale shown below. You are responsible for paying this charge.

If you are cancelling because of an unavoidable and extraordinary circumstance happening at your destination that will significantly impact the performance of your holiday or your flight to get there, you will not have to pay a termination fee and your deposit will be refunded.

13. If You Have A Complaint

If you have a complaint whilst away, you must immediately notify the supplier of the service in question (e.g. your hotelier) and our resort representative and complete a report form whilst in resort. If they are unable to resolve the problem or a member of our staff is not available, you should contact us straight away by telephone/fax/email and we will endeavour to assist. If you are still not satisfied on your return home, you must write to our After Travel Customer Support at the address given in our A-Z Guide, within 28 days of returning from your holiday to allow your complaint to be investigated properly.
Please write your holiday reference number on your letter, and include all relevant information, as well as your daytime and evening telephone numbers. If you fail to follow this simple procedure we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify your complaint whilst you were in resort and this may affect your rights under this contract.

14. Online Check-in For TUI Airways Flights

You can check in online prior to departure if your flight is provided by TUI Airways. When checking in online you will be required to provide your advanced passenger information. Just so you know, if you choose not to use our online check-in service, we reserve the right to charge a fee for airport check-in.

Our agreement with you, and yours with us

15. Your Conduct

We reserve the right to refuse to accept you as a customer or continue dealing with you if we, or another person in authority, believe your behaviour is disruptive, causes unnecessary inconvenience, is threatening or abusive, you damage property, you upset, annoy, disturb, or put any other traveller or our staff or agents in the Republic of Ireland or resort in any risk or danger, on the telephone, in writing or in person. If the Captain of your flight or cruise ship or any of our resort staff or agents believes that you could be disruptive or that you are suffering from a contagious disease, they can also refuse to let you proceed with your travel arrangements, restrict your movements on board, disembark you from a ship or aircraft, or remove you from your accommodation or excursion. If you are disruptive and prevented from boarding your outbound flight in the Republic of Ireland, we will treat your booking as cancelled by you from that moment, and you will have to pay full cancellation charges (see section 12). If this occurs overseas then you will become responsible for your own return home and any other members of your group who cannot or will not travel without you. We will not be liable for any refund, or compensation or any costs or expenses you incur. If you are refused carriage because of your behaviour, or you are under the influence of alcohol or drugs, your airline may pass on your details and date of the refusal of carriage to other airlines for their information. This in turn may make it difficult for you to book other airline tickets. In any of these circumstances no refunds or compensation will be paid to you. As a result of your behaviour during any stage of your holiday including on an aircraft, transfer, in any accommodation, cruise or excursion, we reserve the right to make a claim against you for any damages, costs and expenses (including legal expenses) incurred as a result, including but not limited to (i) cleaning, repairing or replacing property lost, damaged or destroyed by you, (ii) compensating any passenger, crew, staff or agent affected by your actions and (iii) diverting the aircraft or cruise for the purpose of removing you. Criminal proceedings may also be instigated. For the purposes of this section reference to "you" or "your" includes any other person in your party.

Fit to Travel

We, the local Port Authorities, and/or the ship's senior officers shall be entitled to administer a Public Health Questionnaire on their own behalf at any time. You and all passengers travelling with you agree to supply accurate information regarding any symptoms of illness including but not limited to gastrointestinal illness, in relation to travel by sea and/or by air. We and/or your cruise ship captain may deny boarding to any Passenger that we consider in our sole discretion to have symptoms of any viral or bacterial illness including but not limited to Norovirus. Refusal by a Passenger to complete the relevant questionnaire may result in denied boarding. Denied boarding will be treated as a cancellation and 100% cancellation charges will be payable by you. We and/or the ship's senior officers may refuse travel to any Passenger who is considered to be unfit to travel, or likely to endanger health of safety of any other passenger, or is likely to be refused permission to land at any port or render the cruise ship liable for maintenance of Port or repatriation. Alternatively we and/or the ship's senior officers may require the Passenger to remain in his or her cabin for reasons of health and safety. If the passenger refuses then we and/or the ship's senior officers may disembark the passenger without any further liability.

16. Your Accommodation

Any accommodation we arrange for you must only be used by those people named on your Confirmation Invoice (or on latest Amendment Invoice issued). You are not allowed to share the accommodation or let anyone else stay there. You are responsible for the cost of any damage caused to your accommodation or its contents during your stay. These charges must be met by you and may have to be paid locally.

17. The Conditions Of Your Ticket

When you travel by air or by sea, your journey may be subject to certain international conventions such as the Warsaw Convention, Montreal Convention or Athens Convention. You agree that the transport company's own 'Conditions of Carriage' will apply to you on that journey. When arranging this transportation for you, we rely on the terms and conditions contained within these international conventions and those 'Conditions of Carriage'. You acknowledge that all of these terms and conditions form part of your contract with us as well as with the transport company. You can ask us or the travel agent booking your holiday to provide you with a copy of any of the conditions applicable to your journey. The airline's terms and conditions are available on request and the cruise conditions of carriage are available at www.tui.co.uk/cruise. We will tell you the identity of the air carrier when you book with us and if it is not known at that time or subsequently changes we will inform you as soon as possible and no later than at check-in for your flight.

18. Contacting You

If you book via our website or have opted in other circumstances for us to contact you via e-mail, we will communicate with you using the e-mail address you have provided. For example, to provide your e-confirmation, e-ticket, e-cancellation, etc. We will assume that your e-mail address is correct and that you understand the risks associated with using this form of communication. Please note that you may still have to contact us via our call centre or in writing as required in our terms and conditions.

A-Z guide

We understand the smallprint is the last thing anyone wants to read. But we believe it's really important to be clear in the information we give you. This A-Z outlines to what extent we would be liable, if at all. If any part of this guide isn't valid or can't be enforced, the rest will still apply. Not everything here will apply to you but a lot of it will so you'll need to read this guide before you book. You'll also need to read Our Agreement With You and Your Agreement With Us. Together, they explain every aspect of your holiday. If you need information in another format please contact our Assisted Travel Team on 1850 946 164.

Lots of our customers choose to add a hotel stay to their cruise. With that in mind, this guide covers both the cruise element, as well as the 'stay' part so all the information's in one place. We make it clear when we're talking about the ship, rather than the hotel. We'll let you know who the airline is when we send your tickets. If there are changes after that point, we'll tell you before you check in or at the boarding gate. When you come across anything to do with flights in this guide, we'll usually be talking about flights with TUI Airways. So if you're flying with another airline, you'll need to check their conditions, too. From time to time, we need to change airlines or plane types but this isn't classed as a 'Major Change' to your holiday.

In line with EU regulations, we need to let you know who you'll be flying with. This includes any connecting flights or transfers. These are the carriers we may use – A3 Aegean ABR ASL Ireland AEA Air Europa AMV AMC Airlines AP Albastar BA BA Cityflyer/ British Airways BE Flybe BGH Balkan Air BJ Nouvelair Tunisie D8 Norwegian EI Aer Lingus EVE Evelop FHY Freebird Airlines FPO ASL France JAF JetairFly KM Air Malta LS Jet 2 OHY Onur Air PC Pegasus QS Travel Service ST Germania TBA Carrier To Be Advised TOM TUI VOE Volotea X3 TUIFLY 7M Mistral Air

A La Carte

A La Carte benefits aren't available on Cruise & Stay holidays.

Accuracy

We published this brochure in February 2024. Our prices and information were accurate on that date but they may have changed since then. We always check our properties regularly to make sure we're giving you accurate information and we'll tell you of any changes we know about when you book. If you've already booked, we'll tell you about any major changes we're aware of as soon as we can. Bear in mind public holidays and religious festivals affect whether or not facilities are available. Also, it may be the case some facilities aren't managed directly by the hotel and they could close without notice. Please see Itineraries for more details.

Adults-only Cruises

Marella Explorer 2 is an adults-only ship. We won't accept bookings for anyone aged 16 and under on this ship, we also have other adults only sailings which you can find highlighted in the calendar in the back of this brochure.

Adult Properties

These are hotels that cater really well for adults in terms of facilities and destination. They include our adult only TUI BLUE hotels, and Exclusively for Adults ranges, where the minimum age is 16 or 18. You must not book children to stay at any of these hotels under any circumstances as bookings for children will not be accepted.

Advanced Passenger Information

You, and all members of your party, must tell us certain information that we'll send to government authorities and border control and security agencies for the purpose of immigration, security and counter terrorism. This is known as Advanced Passenger Information, or APIS. It may also be referred to as E-borders in the United Kingdom. The information you must provide will include, but not be limited to, your full name - as shown in your passport or travel document, gender, date of birth, travel document type, number, country of issue and expiry date. You must provide this information to the airline between 6 months and 24 hours before departure, or between 6 months and 3 days before departure if you're going to Mexico or Jamaica. For TUI Airways flights you can do this by visiting <https://flightextras.tui.co.uk> or by calling 0044 203 451 2695. Calls from UK landlines cost the standard rate, but calls from mobiles may be higher. Check with your network provider. You'll need your booking reference number, the lead passenger's surname and your date of departure to access the site.

Age Ranges

No under-18s can travel on their own. For our hotels and cruises, 2 to 12-year-olds are classed as children unless we say otherwise. Infants under 6 months old aren't permitted to travel on our cruises.

Air-conditioning

This may depend on the time of year and be subject to hotelier discretion. You may have to pay for it when you get there. All our ships are air-conditioned and you won't need to pay any extra, but please note that the air conditioning onboard is a centralised system - you will be able to adjust the temperature but it is not possible to turn it off.

A-Z guide

Airline Rules

Charter airlines aren't allowed to carry certain nationals to and from their country of origin. This is due to licensing law restrictions with overseas aviation authorities. The current licensing laws, as of 15th November 2010, do not allow TUI Group airlines to carry nationals of the following countries on their operating routes – Brazil, Kenya, and Morocco. Some other restrictions also apply...

- Egyptian nationals, with official residence in the UK, can only travel on inclusive tour package arrangements, except when travelling to Sharm El Sheikh on a scheduled flight.

- Indian and Turkish passport holders can only travel on inclusive tour package arrangements. Please check with your embassy or consulate before you book.

Airport Lounges

You can pay for airport lounge access after you've booked, subject to availability.

You can do this via a TUI Holiday Store, Manage My Booking or by logging into your Customer Account.

Alcohol

During your flight with us and outside of your ship cabin once onboard, you can only drink the alcohol that our staff serve you. During embarkation we have the right to search luggage and hold any alcohol that we believe has not been purchased on your flight. We'll only do so if we think it's necessary, but please retain your proof of purchase just in case. Any alcohol that is not permitted onboard will be returned to you on your departure.

If you order a drink between 2am and 10am, it'll be charged to your onboard account - except from The Coffee Port, which is included from 7am. The minimum drinking age on our ships is 18, except when sailing in U.S. or U.A.E. waters, when the minimum drinking age is 21. The Premium All Inclusive package only applies when you're on the ship, and doesn't apply to hotels on Cruise & Stay or Stay & Cruise holidays. All passengers on the booking must upgrade to Premium All Inclusive. Children 12 years and under can upgrade to the Premium All Inclusive offering for free.

All Inclusive Hotels

You may need to wear a wristband or carry some ID to get the benefits of your package. For a full description of what's included, check the hotel description. Times for inclusive drinks, meals and snacks vary. Your All Inclusive package may not include bottled water, imported drinks, à la carte meals, or some speciality dishes. Some restaurants expect you to reserve a table and will be subject to availability. Not all bars and restaurants operate on an All Inclusive basis. Also, there may be cash bars once All Inclusive bars close. Bear in mind, under-18s won't be served alcohol. You should also be aware that we, and the hotels, may confiscate wristbands and IDs from guests who abuse the All Inclusive benefits. You may be charged for motorised sports, and there are time limits or age and experience restrictions on some of these activities. You may have to pay a deposit to hire equipment. Things like classes and beauty treatments may be included in the price but there'll be a limit on how many sessions you can take. Safety deposit boxes may not be included and you'll need to pay for things like telephone calls and excursions. All Inclusive packages end when you check out of your room. In some cases you can pay to keep using the facilities. If there's a delay to your flight home and you have to spend extra time in the resort, any refreshments will be in line with the airline's instructions – not the board basis of your hotel. You may also find timings change for things like happy hours in bars and dining times.

Amenities

On our cruise ships, there may be a temporary loss of power from time to time because power is generated onboard, and toilets onboard use a vacuum system.

Artist Impressions

These, together with any computer-generated images, are there to give you an idea of how the property or ship will look – they're not replicas of the finished building or ship.

Assisted Travel

Making sure your wellbeing is looked after at all times while you're onboard is really important to us. If you need help with daily tasks, like using the bathroom, eating, or moving around the ship, you'll need to travel with a companion or a personal assistant to help you. Unfortunately, our crew aren't able to help with these kinds of responsibilities.

If you're travelling alone – or your travel companion can no longer help you – and it becomes clear to us that your wellbeing's at risk, we'll have a chat with you about your options regarding your cruise, and help plot the next course of action.

If you suffer with dementia, Alzheimer's, or need a carer to help you at home, you'll need to travel with a companion or a personal assistant during your cruise holiday – this is to make sure that you're safe and that your wellbeing is looked after at all times. If you're planning a cruise and have a disability, use a wheelchair, have special dietary needs, a sensory impairment or are undergoing medical treatment, you must let us know when making your booking. Failure to do this may result in you being refused boarding on arrival at the ship. Our ships have fully equipped medical centres, but they're not designed for extensive or continuing treatment of existing conditions.

We don't have wheelchairs available to hire onboard. If you need a manual wheelchair or a mobility scooter, please bring this with you. You can use both manual and electric wheelchairs onboard our cruises, but we do have a limit on the number we can carry for safety reasons. Due to health and safety regulations, our crew are restricted in the maximum weight they're allowed to lift. This means we're unable to accept any wheelchairs or scooters that don't break down into pieces, with a maximum weight of 32kg per individual piece. See Wheelchairs for more details.

Some properties have things like ramps and specially adapted rooms - please call our Assisted Travel Team for more information.

B

Baby Centre

This is a dedicated space onboard Marella Discovery and Marella Discovery 2 for parents and young children where they can make use of cots, a nursing chair and soft play area. This facility is not staffed so parents need to supervise their children.

BabyClub

These are available at selected TUI BLUE hotels, Sensatori by TUI BLUE resorts, and selected properties with TUI Kids' Clubs - but unfortunately not on our cruise ships. There is always a minimum of one NNEB, CACHE or equivalent qualified staff member present. Trained staff look after under-threes for two-hour sessions throughout the day. Sessions in BabyClub are at an additional charge and can be booked in advance.

Bear in mind, wherever the BabyClub, if your child's ill, they won't be accepted in the club. Also, you'll need to supply your own nappies and prepared feeds.

We can't guarantee standards at BabyClubs that aren't run by us.

If you're staying in one of our selected TUI BLUE hotels or Sensatori by TUI BLUE resorts, you can book baby equipment including cots, strollers, highchairs and sterilisers. They are available to book before travel, or you can when in resort, subject to availability.

Balconies

If the description refers to a French or Juliette balcony, this means that your room will have glass doors but you won't necessarily be able to go out onto the balcony as it'll be shallow in depth. If you're on the ground floor, you'll get a terrace instead of a balcony, even if it says 'BL' or 'balcony' on your confirmation. Health and safety restrictions mean some hotels or apartments may not put you on a high floor if you have small children. Even if you're on a low floor, never leave your children unattended on your balcony.

Banned Airlines

To improve safety, the European Commission has banned some airlines from operating in European airspace. In line with EU directive (EC) no. 2111/2005, Article 9, we need to make you aware of the list of banned airlines. To view the list of airlines that are subject to an operating ban within the European Community, visit http://ec.europa.eu/transport/modes/air/safety/air-ban/search_en.

Beaches

When you're on the beach, make sure you check any flag warning systems and take local conditions into account, particularly things like undercurrents and tides. You'll also need to supervise children at all times as most beaches won't have a lifeguard. You may find that public beaches are closed at certain times, particularly in low season. Beach closures are carried out by local authorities so are beyond our control. One more thing, you may need to pay to use some beaches.

Some beaches in Mexico and the Caribbean may experience an increased level of seaweed from time to time. This is known as sargassum, and is a natural occurrence which can change on a daily basis influenced by weather patterns and sea currents. Hotels which are affected work hard to clear the seaweed so you can continue to enjoy the beach during your holiday. The situation can change day to day due to nature, wildlife and local laws.

Building Work

From time to time, building work is unavoidable, particularly where hotels are open all year round, and it can be noisy. If we're aware of any work, we'll let you know as soon as possible if we think it'll affect your holiday. This can be difficult as we don't control the work and we're not always told when it'll happen and how long it will last. But if we think it'll have a significant effect, you'll have the option of a refund or an alternative holiday, as outlined under 'Major changes to your holiday' in Our Agreement With You.

Bungalows

If the description of your accommodation refers to a bungalow, this means that you may be located in an accommodation block within an annexe building separate from the main building which may not necessarily be single storey or detached.

C

Cabins

Deck plans, floorplans and photographs are provided as a guide. The size, layout and décor of the cabins may differ slightly from those shown. Generally speaking, cabins are smaller than hotel rooms, and extra berths are usually upper bunks that are accessible via a short ladder. Please bear in mind cabins with extra berths are not necessarily larger. Cots are available, too – see Cots.

Personal grooming items such as hairdryers, travel irons, curling tongs, hair straighteners and shavers are permitted when used with caution. However, if such devices are determined to pose a hazard, they will be removed and returned on the last day of the cruise prior to disembarkation.

If you have more than one cabin that is adjacent or opposite to each other then children up to 13 must be accompanied, if the cabin is separate then under 18's must be accompanied.

We have a limited number of cabins that have been adapted for the disabled – see Assisted Travel.

Cabin Reservations

You can book a particular cabin number up to 15 days before you go. Bear in mind, there's always some background noise on a ship. This may be louder when manoeuvring - turning the ship around, for example, or in bad weather. Cabins in the centre of the ship, and on higher decks, tend to be less affected. You can select a specific cabin number at the time of booking. Or, once you've booked your cruise, simply call us to request a cabin number. See Cabin Reservations in the Getting in Touch Section. We'll confirm your cabin number over the phone, and add the cabin booking fee to your invoice - this starts from €80 per cabin, but can vary. Some cabins can't be booked and they all depend on availability. If for any reason we can't give you your reserved cabin we'll move you to a suitable alternative and refund your booking fee on board. You can cancel your cruise if the cabin you wanted isn't available but you'll need to pay the normal cancellation charges. We set these out in Section 12 of Our Agreement With You. We don't class a change to the cabin you've booked as a 'Major Change' to your holiday. Some cabins qualify for extra benefits – see Suite Service.

Views from certain cabins may be obstructed by lifeboats.

Cabin Supplements see Supplements

Celebration of Vows

The items that are included in the package are subject to availability. Please contact us for more details – the number you need is in the Getting In Touch section at the end of this guide under Finishing Touches. It is also possible to book this on board, subject to availability.

Check-in For Your Flight

We recommend you arrive at the airport at least two hours before your scheduled departure time. For flights over seven hours, it's three hours before. Regardless of the length of your flight, you need to have completed check-in at least an hour before departure. UK airlines need to carry out enhanced security screening from certain destinations for return flights to the United Kingdom. If this applies to your flight, you'll be told whilst you're on holiday as it may mean that you need to check in a bit earlier. You might need to be at the boarding gate earlier, too. If we think you may be under the influence of alcohol or pose a threat to passengers or crew, you won't be able to fly. The same applies if you smoke, use insulting or abusive words before or after you board. If that happens, we won't be responsible for your holiday arrangements and we won't give you a refund, pay compensation, or cover any other costs. We may even seek compensation from you for any loss caused by your behaviour. This includes having to divert the plane. It's also a criminal offence to cause disruption on board, so you may be prosecuted. Airlines may also share details about your behaviour with other airlines, which could affect your future trips.

Online Check-in For Your Flight

You'll be allocated your seats when you check in online. If you don't like the seats allocated, you can pay to select your seat. Sometimes we may need to change the seat allocated to you for operational or safety reasons or for persons with reduced mobility. Boarding cards must be printed on A4 paper and be clearly legible with no rips or tears. You must drop off your bags before bag drop closes, 45 minutes before your flight time. Just so you know, if you choose not to use our online check-in service, we reserve the right to charge a fee for airport check-in. Please also see Section 14 of Our Agreement with You and Yours with Us.

Online Check-in for Your Cruise

We ask you to check in for your cruise prior to travel at www.marellacruisecontrol.co.uk. This includes adding your passport information, health declaration and emergency contact details. You will then be able to print your boarding passes and luggage tags.

Check-in For Your Ship

You'll be able to and board the ship as soon as your coach or taxi from the airport or hotel arrives in the port. If you've opted for a 'cabin-only' holiday, it means you've just booked the cruise part with us and you'll need to organise your own flights and transfers from the airport to the ship. Check-in is 2pm to 2 hours before the ship sets sail.

Just keep in mind that there aren't as many facilities at cruise ports as you'd expect at an airport, so make a note of the check-in time on your confirmation. See Onboard Accounts for more details on checking in.

Check-in For Your Accommodation

Check-in time is usually 3pm to 4pm. Depending on when your flight arrives, you may miss a meal if you've booked All Inclusive, Half or Full Board. If your flight arrives late at night, this is classed as the first night of your holiday and your room will be ready when you arrive. If you arrive in the early hours of the morning the day after your flight departed, your room may not be available until the hotel's normal check-in time.

Check-out For Your Accommodation

On the last day of your holiday, you'll usually have to leave your room by mid-morning or noon. You may be able to keep your accommodation for longer, but there could be a charge. Depending on the time of your flight, you may miss a meal at your hotel. Also, you might not be able to use some of the facilities or the full All Inclusive package.

If your flight leaves on or after midnight, you'll have to check out of your hotel room by midday the previous day. There'll usually be a courtesy room or apartment available for you where you can change and leave your bags until it's time to leave. You can pay for a late check-out room, which are normally available until 6pm that evening. The hotel will allocate them on a first-come, first-served basis. You may be able to stay in the room you've had during your holiday, but you may have to move to another. The rooms will only be for you and your group to use, and will have beds and a private bathroom. Late check-out only covers the use of your room. If you're on a Stay & Cruise holiday you won't be able to use a late check-out room at your hotel as your transfer will arrive to take you to the port.

Check-out For Your Cruise

You need to leave your luggage outside your cabin the night before you leave – by 2am. On disembarkation day, you need to be ready to leave your cabin by 8am-9am. We'll take you to the airport in good time for your flight home. Until then, you can stay on the ship. Courtesy cabins will usually be available so you can freshen up before you leave, but if you want to guarantee a cabin you can pay extra to check out later. You'll need to book this with Reception during your cruise. You may also have to move to a different cabin.

Child Prices

Our child prices are subject to availability and only apply when a child shares with two full-fare-paying passengers. We set a limit on our child prices, and we have a limited number of cabins with extra berths for children, so you should try to book early. Child prices are for children between 2 and 12 inclusive. You'll also need to pay €75 on long haul and €45 on short/mid haul for an infant under 2 years on the date of return travel. If any children in your group turn 13 after you've booked but before - or during - your holiday, they'll need to pay the adult price, plus the amendment fee. Children count towards group offers as long as they're paying the adult fare and will pick up any applicable occupancy discounts. You don't pay cabin supplements for children when a child price applies. But you will pay full deposit, flight fare, extra facility, hotel room and board supplements, and insurance premiums for any children who use the reduced price.

Child Protection

We believe we have an important role to play in protecting children's rights everywhere. Our child protection policy applies both in the UK and abroad. We train our resort staff to identify situations where children may need protection and report them to the relevant organisations. We're signed up to the Child Protection Code www.thecode.org. This independent organisation monitors and supports our child protection activities. If you suspect any child is at risk on your holiday, please tell your Holiday Advisor or call Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

A-Z guide

Conditions Of Carriage

Certain rules and regulations apply to air and sea travel. These are set out in the Strasbourg Convention, the Montreal Convention for air, and the Athens and London Conventions for sea. By law we need to give you these in 'legal speak' to avoid any mis-interpretation. We can supply a full copy of both if you ask us to.

Montreal Convention

This is a notice required by European Community Regulation (EC) No. 889/2002.

Air carrier liability for passengers and their baggage

This information notice summarises the liability rules applied by Community air carriers as required by Community legislation and the Montreal Convention.

Compensation In The Case Of Death Or Injury

There are no financial limits to the liability for passenger injury or death. For damages up to 100,000 SDRs (approximately €119,604), the air carrier can't contest claims for compensation. Above that amount, the air carrier can defend itself against a claim by proving that it wasn't negligent or otherwise at fault.

Advance Payments

If a passenger is killed or injured, the air carrier must make an advance payment, to cover immediate economic needs, within 15 days from the identification of the person entitled to compensation. In the event of death, this advance payment shall not be less than 16,000 SDRs (approximately €19,137).

Passenger Delays

In case of passenger delay, the air carrier is liable for damage unless it took all reasonable measures to avoid the damage or it was impossible to take such measures. The liability for passenger delay is limited to 4,150 SDRs (approximately €4,959).

Baggage Delays

In case of baggage delay, the air carrier is liable for damage unless it took all reasonable measures to avoid the damage or it was impossible to take such measures. The liability for baggage delay is limited to 1,000 SDRs (approximately €1,196).

Destruction, Loss Or Damage To Baggage

The air carrier is liable for destruction, loss or damage to baggage up to 1,000 SDRs (approx. €1,196). In the case of checked baggage, it's liable even if not at fault, unless the baggage was defective. In the case of unchecked baggage, the carrier is liable only if at fault.

Higher Limits For Baggage

A passenger can benefit from a higher liability limit by making a special declaration at the latest at check-in and by paying a supplementary fee.

Complaints On Baggage

If the baggage is damaged, delayed, lost or destroyed, the passenger must write and complain to the air carrier as soon as possible. In the case of damage to checked baggage, the passenger must write and complain within 7 days, and, in the case of delay within 21 days, in both cases from the date on which the baggage was placed at the passenger's disposal.

Liability Of Contracting And Actual Carriers

If the air carrier performing the flight is not the same as the contracting air carrier, the passenger has the right to address a complaint or to make a claim for damages against either. If the name or code of an air carrier is indicated on the ticket, that air carrier is the contracting air carrier.

Time Limit For Action

Any action in court to claim damages must be brought within two years from the date of arrival of the aircraft, or from the date on which the aircraft ought to have arrived.

Basis For The Information

The basis for the rules described above is the Montreal Convention of 28 May 1999, which is implemented in the Community by Regulation (EC) No. 2027/97 (as amended by Regulation (EC) No. 889/2002) and national legislation of the Member States.

Athens Convention

Your cruise is subject to the terms and provisions of the Athens Convention relating to the Carriage of Passengers and their Luggage by Sea 1974 ("the Athens Convention"), the London Convention of Limitation on Liability for Maritime Claims 1976 ("the London Convention") and Regulation (EC) 392/2009 on the liability of carriers of passengers by sea in the event of accidents ("the Regulation"). The Athens Convention and Regulation are expressly incorporated into these Conditions and any liability we may have for death or personal injury or for loss of or damage to luggage (including vehicle), or loss of or damage to specific/mobility equipment for Passengers with Reduced Mobility arising out of carriage by sea shall be determined accordingly. In most cases, the Athens Convention and Regulation limit the carrier's liability for death or personal injury, or loss of – or damage to – luggage and specific/mobility equipment for Passengers with Reduced Mobility and make special provision for valuables. It presumes that luggage has been delivered undamaged to the passenger unless written notice is given to us (as carrier) either (i) in the case of obvious damage, before or at the time of leaving the ship or when the luggage is returned to the passenger, and (ii) in the case of damage which is not obvious or if the luggage, or part of it, is lost, within 15 days from the date of leaving the ship or from when the luggage was – or should have been – returned to the passenger. Any damages payable by us and/or the ship owner up to the limits provided by the Athens Convention shall be reduced by the maximum deductible specified in Article 8.4 of that Convention. In no circumstances shall we – or the ship owner – be liable in respect of consequential loss and damage, detention, delay or over-carriage, howsoever caused. In cases of death or personal injury in the event of a shipping incident, where compensation is payable by the carrier, the carrier may make an advance payment up to the limits provided by and in accordance with the Regulation.

Insofar as the cruise may be performed on a ship not owned by us, it is agreed that we shall at all times nevertheless be deemed a ship owner for the purposes of the London Convention, whether as amended or otherwise and as in force in any relevant jurisdiction from time to time, and so entitled to limit liability there under.

Cots

We don't charge for cots on our ships, but you'll need to book a cabin with enough floor space for one. See Cabin Reservations in the Getting in Touch section.

There's usually room for one cot in all our hotel rooms, but you'll need to check with us before you travel to make sure there'll definitely be one available when you arrive. In some countries you'll need to pay a daily charge to hire a cot. If you decide to bring your own travel cot, bear in mind there's no extra luggage allowance for these and the airline will charge extra if you go over your limit.

D

Data Protection

All details provided by you will be held by us and used in accordance with our Privacy Notice. We will process personal data about you and members of your party so that we can manage your account or booking, provide you with our products, services and/or any other travel arrangements booked with us. By providing other people's personal data, you must be sure that they agree to share their data with us and, where appropriate, they understand how their personal data may be used by us. For more information, please refer to our Privacy Notice on our website or upon request in our stores.

Day-Before Bag Drop

The day before bag drop service at the airport is only available to Stay and Cruise holidays. It is not available for Cruise or Cruise and Stay holidays

Delays

Depending on airport facilities, we provide light refreshments for a delay of two to four hours, a meal – or vouchers for a meal – for four to eight hours, and overnight accommodation for delays of eight to 12 hours if it's necessary and possible. If a delay is longer than five hours, you can cancel your flight and we'll refund the flight part of your holiday. We'll only refund the whole cost of your holiday if we change or cancel your holiday. We set out exactly what this means in Our Agreement With You. If you booked your complete cruise holiday – including flights, transfers and the cruise itself – with us and there's a flight delay, we'll attempt to get you to the ship where possible. See Insurance for details.

Dress Code

For dress codes onboard your cruise, please refer to page 21. See Gala Meals

Drinks Package

See All Inclusive Drinks Package.

Duty Free

You can't take duty-free cigarettes, tobacco, or cigars into Barbados unless you are joining one of our cruise ships on the day of your arrival.

Entertainment Onboard

Each itinerary has its own entertainment programme but you'll need to bear in mind, if you're combining two itineraries in winter, Nov - Apr, to make one holiday, you may find some of the acts are repeated. Also, just so you know, we may need to change guest acts and speakers.

Extra Charges

The key aspects of your holiday will be included in the price when you book – see Prices for details. And safety deposit boxes on your cruise are also included at no extra charge.

But it's important to point out you may have to pay extra for some things when you get there. For example, you might want to book an excursion, or enjoy something from the minibar or room/cabin service. You may also need to pay extra for things like sports, beauty treatments and classes. If we're aware you'll need to pay extra for a particular activity or facility, we'll show you by adding an asterisk after the item. See Meals and All Inclusive Hotels for more details.

F

Family Rooms

These are generally for two adults and two children. They're available in selected accommodation but when hotels are fully occupied, family rooms may be limited. Please also see Cabins.

Finishing Touches

You'll need to book them at least seven days before departure and pay for them in full when you settle your invoice.

Flight Times

Actual flight times are on your tickets. They are local times based on the 24-hour system. We can't guarantee the flight times in our brochure, on our website or on your booking confirmation won't change, so please always check your tickets.

Flying With Children

Infants less than 14 days old are not allowed to travel. Any child over 14 days and under two years old on the date of their return travel is classed as an infant. Infants must sit on an adult's lap and wear an extension seatbelt. If your child reaches their 2nd birthday while you're away you'll need to allow for this when you book. All children aged two and above must have their own seats on the plane. If you've paid for an additional seat for your infant, you can use your own car seat as long as it has a single release harness. It needs to be facing forward on the aircraft seat, designed to be secured by lap belt alone, and must conform to EU safety standards. You'll also need the instruction leaflet to show the cabin crew if they need it. The seat mustn't be more than 16 inches or 40cm wide. You can't use carrycots and deluxe child car seats, as they won't fit. The use of car seats will be at your airline's discretion. Airlines registered outside the UK may have their own rules. Call TUI Airways for information on approved car seats. You'll find the number at the end of this guide.

Free Cabin Upgrade Offer

On selected departure dates and during certain booking periods it's possible to book a cabin upgrade offer. This means you can book a higher grade of cabin at a reduced price. See Special Offers.

G

Gala Meals

Many hotels and apartments host gala meals over the Christmas and New Year period. Bear in mind that men will probably have to wear a jacket, shirt, tie and long trousers. You'll see if it's included by checking the individual property descriptions. If you're on a cruise over the Christmas and New Year period, they'll be included.

Group Offers

You may qualify for discounts if there are 10 or more in your party. When you're about to book, ask your Travel Expert to contact our Groups Department. Or call our Groups booking line yourself – you'll find the number at the end of this guide. Of course, group offers and discounts are subject to availability and we may withdraw them at any time. We base discounts on how many are travelling and everyone needs to travel on the same date. Their holidays must be for the same length and to the same accommodation. If it's more convenient, we can sometimes make arrangements for large groups to leave from different airports. They may not be available in conjunction with any other offers. Cancellations within your group may mean a drop in your discount, and the people who cancel will need to pay our standard cancellation charges. One last thing – if you want your cabins to be close to each other, you'll need to reserve your cabin numbers before you go.

I

Insurance

You'll need to take out a suitable insurance policy for you and anyone travelling with you. This includes infants and children. We'll tell you about our insurance policy when you book. If you choose not to take out our insurance, you'll need to tell us who you're insured with. And when checking in online for your cruise, you will be asked to input your insurance policy number, as we need the company details and policy number before you travel. We can't accept responsibility for any loss that you or anyone travelling on your booking suffers if the individual isn't adequately insured. As with all insurance policies, terms and conditions apply, so you need to make sure you've got the right policy for you. See Delays for details.

If you're travelling to the European Economic Area you'll also need a European Health Insurance Card. You can apply at www.ehic.org.uk. You'll need to have both this card and adequate travel insurance. If you're on a cruise holiday with us, the European Health Insurance Card isn't accepted in private medical centres on our ships.

For travel to Cuba, you need to show proof of medical insurance before you can enter the country. This also applies if you're calling at Cuba on one of our cruise itineraries. So have a copy of your valid insurance policy with your tickets and passport for when you get to your resort airport. Visit www.cubaminrex.cu/English/LookCuba/Articles/Others/2010/06-04.html.

Itineraries

The arrival and departure times shown in the brochure are correct at the time of print but may change. The activities we describe at ports may not always be possible – due to the time spent in port or other factors outside of our control such as bad weather – and are always subject to availability. Sometimes we have to alter the time in port, the order of ports or substitute ports entirely due to bad weather, port congestion, public holidays or other operational reasons. If we alter the time in port it will mean that certain trips will only be possible if there's enough time to do them. Sometimes it may be necessary to anchor or tender off shore rather than dock. These changes can happen before or during your cruise. In exceptional circumstances we may have to change your ship. See Local Laws for details.

K

Kids' Clubs

No matter which kids' club you're looking at, there are certain things to bear in mind.

- Children who are unwell won't be accepted.
- If your child has a disability, we will do our best to look after them but please check with us before you book that the club can accommodate your child's particular needs.
- Sometimes, even when you have checked in advance, there may be reasons why the club can no longer accommodate your child's particular needs. When this happens we will do our best to include them in as many activities as possible but you may need to stay with your child to provide the care and attention that they require.
- If your child has an allergy or any other special requirements, please let us know when you sign them into the kids' club for the first time.
- Staff aren't authorised to administer medication or change nappies, so you'll need to return to the club to do this if necessary.
- You must register your child for all activities, sign them in and out at the start and end of the session.
- You must stay within the complex or on the ship while your child is in the club and also leave details of your whereabouts in case you're needed.
- Activities may have to be cancelled, numbers limited and a rota introduced. This may be for health and safety reasons or at particularly busy times.
- Even if you've booked a package holiday with us, you may need to pay extra for some activities and sessions when you get there.

Hotel-run Kids' Clubs

Only clubs run by us meet our specification, which include strict staff to child ratios. Standards and facilities at hotel-run clubs vary. You should make sure you're satisfied with the facilities and staff providing the service before enrolling your child. We're unable to take responsibility or guarantee that standards at hotel-run clubs meet Irish standards.

TUI Kids' Club

In our hotels, we offer TUI Kids' Club for different age groups, with bespoke sessions designed for age ranges 3-6 and 7-12. There is a minimum of two 2-hour supervised sessions per day (morning and afternoon) six days a week. These can be booked in resort. Sometimes we'll combine ages for activities, but it won't affect our strict staff-to-child ratios. We'll have two staff on hand at all times. Kids' club activities run from 1st May to 31st October, unless stated otherwise. We may need to finish before the end of October if there isn't enough demand.

Kids' Clubs at selected TUI BLUE and Sensatori by TUI BLUE hotels

The Kids' Clubs at these hotels offer the same as above, but they also have Teens activities in The Hangout for 12-16 year olds.

Lifts

All of our ships have lifts – you can check where they are on the ship deck plans. Please note, there are some areas on our ships which may not be accessible by a lift. For full accessibility details on all of our ships please visit www.accessable.co.uk/marella-cruises. Some of our hotels don't have a lift. If stairs are a problem for you, please ask us for details before you book so we can suggest a suitable property. See Assisted Travel.

Local Laws

For our cruise itineraries, you'll need to abide by the laws and customs of each country we visit. This especially applies to the Islamic countries that we visit as part of our Asia and Dubai sailings, including the UAE, Oman, Qatar, Bahrain and Jordan. We advise you to dress modestly when out and about in these destinations, covering your shoulders and knees. Things like offensive gestures, shouting, drunken behaviour and kissing in public should be avoided. When visiting religious sites you may be asked to cover arms and legs, and women may need to cover their hair. Sometimes public holidays and events mean we have to change our itinerary or miss the port altogether. See Itineraries. Sometimes local laws, religious customs or events mean facilities aren't available. For example, in all Muslim countries during the month of Ramadan, bars and restaurants – including hotel restaurants – change their opening hours. You may not be allowed to eat, drink or smoke in public areas during daylight hours either. Chewing gum is banned in Singapore, drinking and gambling ages vary by destination, and in some countries, the use of e-cigarettes is prohibited – please see the Alcohol and Smoking sections. It's a good idea to find out more before you travel. For the most up-to-date information, check www.fco.gov.uk/en/travel-and-living-abroad/travel-advice-by-country/.

Lost Property

If you leave something behind on the plane during your flight out, you'll need to contact the overseas airport and ask them to check their lost property. If it's on your flight home, let us know and we'll do our best to track down the item for you. If you leave what we class as a 'valuable item' at your hotel or on one of our ships, like a camera, a laptop or a wallet, we'll do our best to find it for you. If your item is found, you'll need to contact the hotel to arrange for it to be returned, and there may be a charge for this. If we can't find your item, we'll send you a statement to support your travel insurance claim. For help with lost property from your cruise, contact After Travel Customer Support – you'll find their details in the Getting In Touch section.

Low Season

You may find that if you're travelling outside of peak holiday periods, like May and October, some facilities – both in your hotel and resort – may not be available and entertainment may be more low-key. Hoteliers may remove facilities at certain times due to low demand.

A-Z guide

Luggage

This section explains how much you can take, what you can pack, and how to keep your valuables safe. Please make sure you know your limits so your trip can get off to a smooth start. Luggage allowances vary, and could change - please check when you book.

On TUI Airways

You can check in 20kg. Under twos get a 10kg luggage allowance, and we won't charge you to take your folding pushchairs either. You can share your allowance with others on your booking, but no single bag can be more than 23kg. This is for health and safety reasons. If you have booked extra luggage allowance, you still need to make sure each bag is under 23kg, otherwise check-in staff won't accept it. Also, we can only accept luggage if it's packed and secured in suitcases or bags, and we believe it can stand up to reasonable handling. Otherwise, we may ask you to sign a disclaimer before we can take it. This also includes any bags we believe are already damaged. If you're a Cruise & Stay customer and you have booked a TUI BLUE, Holiday Village, A la Carte or Sensatori hotel, then your luggage allowance will remain at 20kg.

As for hand luggage, you can take one item on your flight up to 10kg. The maximum dimensions are 55x40x20cm. You can't buy extra hand luggage allowance. You should be able to lift your hand luggage into the overhead storage compartments yourself. Other bags, such as handbags or laptop bags, must fit in your single item of hand luggage. There are restrictions on what you can carry in your hand luggage so make sure you read the information that comes with your tickets. For example, you should pack valuables in your hand luggage - never your checked-in luggage. This includes money, jewellery, computers and important documents. Your airline won't be liable for loss or damage to valuable or fragile items packed in hold luggage, no matter how it's caused.

On Other Airlines

If you're not flying with TUI, you'll need to find out what your allowance is for checked-in luggage and hand luggage. Some airlines don't give infants their own allowance.

Excess Luggage And Sports Equipment

There may be a charge for excess luggage and sports equipment. Whether or not we can carry it will depend on capacity on the day. You can arrange to take golf clubs, windsurf boards, diving equipment and other sports equipment on your flight. If you don't book, you may still be able to check your own equipment in. But we can't guarantee this and there'll be a charge. Bear in mind, any problems with excess luggage charges need to be sorted out at the airport. We can't guarantee you'll be able to take bulky sports equipment with you on the coach to your holiday accommodation, and there may be an extra charge.

Lost And Damaged Luggage

Please report any lost luggage or damage to us within seven days. If not, under the terms of the Montreal Convention, we won't be liable. See Montreal Convention for details. If your luggage is damaged on your way back to Ireland, you need to complete a Property Irregularity Form (PIF) at the airport and keep a copy of it for insurance purposes. If your luggage is damaged between the coach and the ship, you need to report this to reception as soon as possible to help with any insurance claims.

Low Season

You may find that if you're travelling outside of peak holiday periods, like May and October, some facilities - both in your hotel and resort - may not be available and entertainment may be more low-key. Hoteliers may remove facilities at certain times due to low demand.

M

Meals

On Your Flight

Meals are only included on long haul flights. Please let us know when you book if you require any children's meals. Just so you know, we don't provide meals for under-twos so you'll need to bring something with you. Remember to tell us if you have any special dietary requirements. We can't guarantee we'll be able to meet them, but we'll do our best. For group bookings, everyone in your party will need to either book in advance or decline the meal. For all other flights, we offer a range of snacks and drinks to buy onboard.

At Your Hotel

Meals are usually served in the hotel's main restaurant. The set-up here may change from buffet to waiter service, or vice versa. For à la carte restaurants you may be limited to a certain number of visits per stay and you may need to make a reservation. You may need to pay extra for these, too. Not all of the hotel's restaurants will necessarily be open at the same time. Meals for infants are not included in the price of your holiday so you'll need to make your own arrangements. Full Board Plus includes a Continental breakfast, lunch and dinner with drinks included during mealtimes. Full Board includes a Continental breakfast, lunch and dinner. Half Board includes a Continental breakfast and dinner - or lunch, if you wish - at some hotels. Bed & Breakfast usually means Continental breakfast.

On Your Cruise

All meals are included - see the individual ship pages. There's a cover charge at the speciality restaurants on all our ships. You can expect to pay from £12 to £45 for a three-course meal.

Medical Conditions

For Your Flight

If you have a medical condition, a serious illness, or you've recently had surgery or an accident, you'll need to be cleared for travel by the airline. You may also need a 'Fitness to Fly' certificate from your GP. Conditions that need medical clearance include respiratory, coronary or infectious illness. You'll need to give your request for medical clearance to the airline at least four working days before you're due to fly. If you're unsure what conditions require a 'Fitness to Fly' certificate, it's best to contact our Assisted Travel Team before you book - their number is at the end of this guide. We also recommend that you contact your doctor before you book if you've got any concerns about your health. The risk of deep vein thrombosis while flying is extremely low but is still a serious medical condition. DVT is when a blood clot forms, usually in the lower leg, sometimes because of sitting still for a long time. It needs treatment with blood-thinning drugs to prevent clots breaking off and travelling to the lungs. You can take precautions to reduce the risk. People most at risk include those with a history of bronchial or circulatory problems, thrombosis, those recently hospitalised, smokers, the obese, those with congestive heart failure, a malignant disease, pregnant women or women taking the contraceptive pill. To reduce the risk, exercise your legs from time to time, or walk around if possible. Elastic stockings may be helpful. Drink plenty of non-alcoholic liquids to prevent dehydration. See your doctor if you think you may be particularly prone to DVT.

If you think you might need to ask for therapeutic oxygen during your flight, please contact your airline for details at least one month before your departure date. TUI Airways does not charge for this, but you must request it in advance so we can confirm that it'll be available for you. Contact our Assisted Travel Team for more information - their number is at the end of this guide. See Special Requests for more details.

For Your Cruise

Just so you know, as part of online check-in we will ask you to declare any pre-existing medical conditions. All ships have a medical centre with an English-speaking doctor. There's a charge for all treatments and the first £1000 of your bill will be payable to the medical provider onboard. Please note we don't accept the European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) or the Global Health Insurance Card (GHIC), on board. Our medical centres are well equipped but not designed for extensive or continued treatment of existing conditions. If you're planning to use a medical centre on shore, remember to take your insurance claim form. If you're concerned about seasickness, ask your doctor or pharmacist for advice before you go. It's worth pointing out you won't be able to board if you're showing signs of a contagious disease.

Money Exchange

On Your Cruise

Our ships use sterling onboard. You can change small amounts of cash, but charges apply. You can't use a debit or credit card to change money. See Onboard Accounts.

At Your Hotel

If you want to change money when you get there, check the property descriptions to find out if you can do this at your hotel.

O

Official Ratings

Each country has its own system for rating properties. We'll always publish any official ratings where they're available, usually as stars. But there are a few things we need to tell you on this front. In Greece, you'll also find reference to A to C instead of stars, with A being the best. This is based on facilities and ground space.

Onboard Accounts

Our ships are cashless and prices onboard are in pounds sterling. There are limited exchange facilities so you can change small amounts of cash to use ashore. You can charge everything you buy onboard during your cruise to your cabin account. Accounts are opened when you board the ship and can be settled in cash or credit/debit card. To settle your account with cash we'll need a £200 per cabin deposit for each week of your cruise. On all Marella ships we accept Visa and Mastercard credit and debit cards, and American Express. You just need to register with your credit or debit card when you check in online or at the ship.

Onboard Spend

We have this special offer on some of our cruise holidays, subject to availability. The way it works is an amount of money is credited to your onboard account at the start of your cruise. This credit is only available to adults. It can't be transferred to anyone else and can't be refunded. See Special Offers.

P

Passports

The name in your passport must match the name on your ticket otherwise you may not be able to travel and your insurance could be invalid. If someone in your group changes their name after you have booked, tell us and we'll issue the ticket in the new name. If you've already received the ticket, return it and we'll send one with the correct name. There may be a fee for this change. If you're an Irish or British citizen, you need a full passport valid for six months from the date of your return to Ireland. If your passport has an Israeli stamp, you may be refused entry to some countries. If this happens on a cruise, you would have to stay on board. Talking of Israeli stamps, if your ship docks in Israel, your passport won't be stamped - instead, you'll get a stamp on a separate piece of paper.

For more information, visit the Passport Service website at <https://www.dfa.ie/passports-citizenship/>. If you don't have an Irish passport, you should always check with your own embassy, high commission or consulate before you book. Please also see Visas.

Pregnancy

You can cruise onboard our ships up to the 24th week of pregnancy. If you're sailing on any of our ships you'll need to have a medical certificate to prove that you're fit to travel. If you're more than 24 weeks at the end of your cruise then you won't be able to sail. Please check your insurance policy for any restrictions that apply.

Prices

The price you pay will depend on when you're travelling, and prices may go up and down throughout the season. Prices are based on the standard occupancy for the cabin or room type included in the package, so will change if it is occupied by a different number of guests.

See Occupancy Supplements/Discounts. Please also see Special Offers.

Prohibited Items

To ensure your safety and security some items are prohibited from being carried onto our vessels. Each time you board the ship we will security screen you and your baggage, if any prohibited items are found they may be permanently confiscated. The list of prohibited items can be found here: <http://www.tui.co.uk/destinations/info/faq/luggage-guidelines>. This list is not exhaustive and any other items which the Port or Ship security staff consider pose a risk may also be refused.

R

Room Upgrades

If you arrange a different room type with the hotel when you arrive, this won't be included in your contract with us. See Cabins for cabin upgrades.

S

Safety

Overseas' safety standards are generally lower than ours in Ireland. We take reasonable care to make sure only reputable businesses provide the services that make up our holidays, and we expect them to provide those services in line with local standards.

Safety Drills Onboard

All our ships comply with the International Convention for the Safety of Life at Sea – SOLAS. It is a mandatory requirement to actively participate in our mustering process, MyMuster.

Sailing Times

The sailing times for our cruise holidays are correct when we publish them, but they may change. See Itineraries for more details.

Sea Views

On our cruise ships, the view from some cabins may be obstructed. See Cabins for details. In hotels, if you book a room with a sea view, it may be partly blocked by trees or smaller buildings, or across a road, but you'll still be able to see the sea. If we describe a room as a Limited Sea View, this will generally mean that your view of the sea will be to the side rather than directly in front of you. There may also be more obstructions like trees between your room and the sea than with a Sea View room.

Seating

The minimum seat pitch on our aircraft is 29 inches. The minimum seat width is 16 inches. If you think you'll have difficulty fitting into this seat, please call our Assisted Travel Team before booking - you can find their details at the end of this guide. You might need to pay an additional charge depending on what options are available.

Seat Upgrades

If you buy any seat upgrade, including Select your Seat, seats can be selected via Manage My Booking as soon as your booking is confirmed. If you've paid extra for Select Your Seat or if you've reserved Extra Legroom Seats or Extra Space Seats, on some holidays you will be able to choose your seats at the time of booking, otherwise you'll be able to access the seat map immediately after you book your holiday. You can also choose your seats by logging in to your Customer Account or the Flight Extras website.

Seats With Extra Legroom

These are available to book on selected short and mid haul flights and are suitable for and children. Our Select-Your-Seat service is included, in accordance with our Select Your Seat terms and conditions - see Select Your Seat. To get the best choice of seats, we recommend you book and select your seats as early as possible before departure. If you experience any difficulties using our online service, please contact your travel agent or, if you've booked your holiday online, please contact TUI on 0203 636 1790. Calls are charged at local rates, but may cost more from mobiles - please check with your service provider. Just so you're aware, we'll always do our best to seat your group together but we can't guarantee this.

Seats With Extra Space

These include seats that are close to or next to emergency exit doors, behind a bulkhead or behind a dividing wall. In our Dreamliner aircraft they may also be located in the first 4 rows of the Economy Club cabin. Seats with extra space are only available for adults and children aged 12 years and over to book in advance, and just so you know we may allocate these seats to families with children if the seats are not located in an emergency exit row. Emergency exit row seats are only available to passengers who are able to move quickly and operate the emergency exit without difficulty - in line with European Aviation Safety Authority (EASA) regulations.

Just a few things to bear in mind before you book an emergency exit row seat...

Any passengers who have difficulty moving quickly - either because of physical or mental impairment or disability, age or sickness, or physical size - cannot sit in these seats. Neither can anyone who's under the age of 16 - whether accompanied or not, anyone who requires an extension seatbelt, anyone who's under the influence of alcohol or anyone who's travelling with an assistance animal. These regulations have been put in place by the EASA and are for the safety of our passengers. The cabin crew have the final say and we kindly ask that their decisions are respected.

Select Your Seat

If you pay to take advantage of our Select Your Seat service, you'll be able to log in to your booking and choose your seats. You'll also get access to online check-in 2 weeks prior to departure – a full 7 days before this is made available to other customers. Once you've checked in and confirmed your chosen seat, you won't be able to change it. That said, in some circumstances, we may have to change your seat. This would only be for operational, safety or security reasons. In accordance with the Civil Aviation Authority's guidelines, certain requirements must be satisfied before we can allocate seats near the exit. If we do have to change your seat, we'll try to keep it as close to what you booked as possible. A refund will only be offered if we can't seat you in a similar position to your original request. A similar position means the same type of seat - window, aisle etc - as your original selected seats. In such cases, we ask that you keep a copy of your confirmation documents and boarding cards.

Ship Maintenance

Ongoing maintenance may happen while you're onboard one of our cruise ships. We'll do our best to keep noise to a minimum.

Shore Excursions

All shore excursions are subject to change. Please note that passengers must be 18 or older to go on a ship-sponsored shore excursion on their own. For full terms and conditions, including details on our cancellation policy, please see the Cruise Shore Excursions Terms & Conditions at www.tui.co.uk/destinations/info/cruise-shore-excursions-terms-and-conditions. Please also see Itineraries.

Single Cabins

These cabins are for sole occupancy.

Single Rooms

Single rooms and rooms for sole occupancy are available in most hotels, but demand always exceeds availability. Sometimes when we refer to single rooms it may mean a room suitable for sole occupancy. Single rooms are generally smaller, may not have the best locations or the same amenities. If you're booking a double room just for yourself, you'll usually be asked to pay a supplement. This also applies to self-catering accommodation, where, for example, three people choose a property for four. Our prices reflect the costs of the rooms contracted to us.

Smoking

All our ships are non-smoking which means you can only smoke in designated areas of the open deck. Smoking isn't permitted on cabin balconies, either. As for e-cigarettes you can only use these in the designated areas on deck. In Singapore, Thailand, India and the United Arab Emirates, e-cigarettes are banned and will be confiscated.

Spa

Spas in our hotels and on our cruise ships aren't included in the price of your holiday unless we say otherwise. In Spain and the Canary Islands, by law only over-16s can use the facilities.

Special Offers

Our offers are only available on the holidays and dates we advertise, are per booking, and are subject to availability.

A-Z guide

Special Requests

We'll always do our best to help however we can, but we can't guarantee we'll be able to meet your needs every time. These special requests aren't covered by Our Agreement With You so from a legal point of view, they're not part of your holiday contract.

Suite Concierge

Our Suite Concierge is available for guests who have booked a Royal Suite, Executive Suite, Grand Suite, Family Suite or Junior Family Suite on Marella Discovery 2. The Suite Concierge is open 24 hours a day, and we'll let you know when a member of the team will be available there to make reservations on your behalf for the spa, speciality restaurants, shore excursions and future cruise bookings.

Suite Service

Suite Service is available when you book any type of Suite on any of our ships. It's also available if you book a Family Balcony cabin on Marella Explorer. Benefits include a free pressing service – this is limited to 3 items per person during your stay, and is subject to the laundry's terms and conditions. You also get breakfast in bed – one free Continental breakfast for each passenger, each week – a coffee machine in your cabin, slippers and bath robe, upgraded toiletries, and a pillow menu.

Supplements

Cabin Supplements

We base the price of your holiday on a Deck 4/5 Inside Cabin on Marella Voyager, Marella Explorer 2 and Marella Explorer, and a Deck 2/3 Inside Cabin on Marella Discovery 2 and Marella Discovery. You can book other cabin types if you pay extra for a room upgrade. Cabin supplements vary by sailing date and prices may go up or down. Occasionally it's possible to upgrade your cabins once onboard check with reception for availability and prices. Children don't pay cabin supplements where the child price applies - See Child Prices for details. Any special offers will be limited. See Free Cabin Upgrade Offer.

Flight Supplements

Depending on the airport you choose to fly from, on certain days or at certain times, you may have to pay a 'flight supplement'. Flight supplements may go up or down throughout the season. Some holidays are only available on flights with extra charges, either because the accommodation is available only on certain days of flying, or because onward travel arrangements are only available at certain times.

Occupancy Supplements/Discounts

Depending on the number of people sharing a room, you may need to pay an 'occupancy supplement' for under-occupancy or single occupancy, or there may be discount if more people share a room. Occupancy supplements/discounts may go up or down throughout the season.

Swimming Pools

It's unlikely your pool will have a lifeguard. An adult must always accompany children in the pool. This includes children's pools and surrounding areas. Pools may be closed in early or late season, so April, early May and October, or in particularly bad weather. Also, pools won't be heated unless we say otherwise in the property description. Waterslides may have height or age restrictions. Due to ship regulations, children in swim nappies, pull ups or children who aren't completely toilet trained are not permitted in any of the onboard pools. If you're on one of our ships, swimming pools will be filled as long as the sea water is considered safe for you to swim in. Having said that, we may occasionally need to close the pools for other reasons. For example, if the weather's particularly bad.

Taxes

You may need to pay a tourist tax at the airport or at your hotel. This will still apply if you're combining your cruise itinerary with a hotel stay. If your cruise includes Dubrovnik, then a tourist tax will apply here which will be charged to your onboard account. Please note, if you are on one of our itineraries where you start and end your cruise in Dubrovnik you will be exempt from paying the tourist tax.. Taxes can change regularly so check before you go. See Prices for more details.

Tour Operator Ratings

We rate our holidays on our annual reviews and also the feedback we get from our end-of-holiday Customer Satisfaction Questionnaires. We rate hotels and apartments from '2' for no-frills, good value accommodation, to '5' for more comfort and a wider range of facilities. There may be some differences between accommodation that shares the same rating. That's where our 'plus' rating comes in.

Towels

You'll be given pool towels on our ships for use during your cruise. If they are not returned, a £10 charge will be added to your onboard account.

Transatlantic Activity Programme

These workshops vary in length depending on the activity but as a guide will usually be held over a period of at least 5 days. Activities are subject to change.

Transfers

The transfer times we give you are a rough guide. They don't allow for delays to incoming flights or local traffic conditions. Our cruise holidays include transfers between the airport, ship and hotel by coach or minibus.

For other types of cruise holiday the arrangements will be different...

Go-as-you-please Transfers

We'll provide transfers between the airport and the ship but you'll need to make your own way to and from your accommodation.

Cabin Only bookings – No Flights

If you have booked the cruise part on its own then transfers aren't included and it's down to you to get to the ship on time. The last check-in is two hours before the advertised sailing time, so build plenty of time into your schedule for checking in and boarding.

Town Transfers

In some places, we put on a Town Transfer to take you to the town or city centre from the port area. The Marella Cruises-operated shuttle bus will incur a small charge, which will be advised once onboard for each port.

Port Shuttles

If we're not able to dock close to the port entrance, it might be a short walk or bus ride to the port gates. In some places, there'll be a shuttle bus to take you from the ship to the port gates. This will either be provided by Marella Cruises or the local port authority. If it's operated by us, it'll be free, but there might be a small fee for buses run by the local port authority. It'll depend on what berth the ship is docked at and is only confirmed during the cruise.

Twin Cabins

Some twin cabins can take a 3rd or 4th bed but they're usually camp or folding beds. Cabins that take extra beds or a cot aren't necessarily bigger than standard rooms, so space may be limited. See Cabins.

Vaccinations

Speak to your doctor at least 2 months before you're due to go away. Some treatments, for malaria for example, should begin well before you go. If you're booking within three weeks of your departure, speak to your doctor before you book.

Visas

The best place for up-to-date information on visa and travel advice is the Department of Foreign Affairs. Visit www.dfa.ie. There may be specific entry requirements for under-18s, depending on your destination. For example, if a young person is travelling without both parents, there may be extra costs and they may need extra legal documents such as an affidavit, from a notary public. Always check with the consulate or embassy of the country you're travelling to before you book. We'll organise a group visa for Irish passport holders, however, occasionally you may need to pay for a visa - please refer to individual itinerary information at the time of booking for more information. This will cover all your ports of call and trips ashore. If you haven't got a British or Irish passport, you'll need to check entry requirements with individual embassies or consulates. If you don't have one of these passports, you'll need to organise your own visas for each port of call. Without the right visas, you won't be allowed to board the ship. It's also worth pointing out, if you're visiting more than one port of call in a particular country, for example in India, you'll need a multiple-entry visa. We've teamed up with CIBTvisas to help with all your visa requirements - you can visit our online portal at www.cibtvisas.co.uk/marella. Just so you know, all of the info on this site applies to British passport holders. You can contact CIBT by phone to discuss visa requirements for non-British passport holders.

W

Weather

There are sometimes tropical storms and hurricanes in the Caribbean and Mexico between June and November. It's impossible to predict their path or how long they will last more than three or four days in advance, and often it's much less. If a storm is forecast for one of our destinations, your safety is always our first priority. If there are hurricanes during your holiday we follow the advice of the Foreign & Commonwealth Office and work with the Federation of Tour Operators. Bad weather may even force us to change parts of your itinerary. This may happen before the cruise starts or during it. It may also mean departure or arrival times at ports change. Also, local conditions may mean we have to limit our time at that port, or miss it out altogether. We may also have to change your ship for a similar one. Some hotel facilities - like outdoor bars and some sports - may not be available in adverse weather. Where we display weather information, this is supplied by the Met Office, © Crown copyright, the Met Office.

Wheelchairs

On Your Flight

When you fly with TUI, we'll take your wheelchair and one other mobility item in addition to your normal luggage allowance. However, you'll need to let us know at least 48 hours before you travel. We recommend your wheelchair and other mobility aids are fully insured.

If you've got an electric wheelchair, you'll need to let our Assisted Travel Team know so that the necessary arrangements can be made. Please let us know the wheelchair's make and model when you call. There's a limit on how many electric mobility aids we can take on each flight. If you don't let us know before you book and we can't carry your wheelchair, you might need to pay an extra charge to change your booking. You can bring a battery-powered wheelchair if it meets the conditions given in the ICAO Technical Instructions for the Safe Transport of Dangerous Goods, plus any other related CAA rules. Visit www.caa.co.uk for more information. Please contact us as soon as possible if you're travelling with a battery-powered wheelchair or mobility aid and let us know the device's make and model, dimensions and battery type. We can then confirm whether there's space onboard.

Electric wheelchairs need to be loaded in an upright position for the flight. Batteries must be securely attached to the mobility aid and terminals protected from short circuits. Electrical circuits must be isolated to prevent the device being operated accidentally. If the wheelchair can't be loaded in an upright position, the battery terminals need to be protected against short-circuiting, and the battery removed and stored in strong packaging. Lithium batteries that are designed to be removed must travel in the cabin.

You need to bring the operating instructions for your mobility aid with you. If you don't have these details, see <https://www.bhta.com/air-transport-advice> where your make and model should be shown. If not, you'll need to contact the manufacturer, or shop where it was purchased or hired.

If you want to check whether your wheelchair will fit onboard our aircraft, please contact our Assisted Travel Team – the number can be found at the end of this guide.

If you're flying with another airline, you'll need to contact them directly to see if your wheelchair will fit onboard. Our Assisted Travel Team can help you with this.

Wheelchairs - on Resort Transfers

If you're taking an electric wheelchair or scooter, you'll need to book a taxi transfer to your hotel. You can't take them on the coach. There's an extra charge for this.

Wheelchairs - on Your Cruise

You'll need to bring your own standard-size, collapsible wheelchair to use on our ships. Unfortunately, due to safety reasons, we have to limit the number of wheelchairs we can allow onboard so please call our Assisted Travel Team before you book. If you plan to use your wheelchair onboard and require adapted facilities you must book a specially adapted cabin. All our ships have small number of these cabins - you can see them on the deck plans. They have bathrooms adapted for wheelchair-users and have wider access. These cabins may only be booked by those who require adapted facilities. If you plan to use your wheelchair onboard, but do not require adapted facilities, please contact our Assisted Travel Team to make sure an appropriate cabin type can be selected. See Cabin Reservations.

Wheelchairs - Going Ashore

If you're bringing a wheelchair to use when you're ashore, we'll look after it for you at the gangway so it's there when you need it. But you'll have to be able to manage the gangway without it. In ports where a tender to shore is necessary, you'll have to stay onboard if you can't manage without your wheelchair. At other times, depending on the port and its tides, it may not always be possible for you to leave the ship at all due to gangway access. Some excursions may not be suitable for the less mobile, please contact our Shore Excursions Team to confirm before booking, you'll find their details at the end of this guide. See Assisted Travel.

Wi-Fi

On Your Cruise

Wi-Fi onboard our ships depends on satellite connectivity, so a strong signal can't be guaranteed and bandwidth is limited. Wi-Fi is only available in some public areas and is not available in cabins. If you use Wi-Fi onboard it will be charged to your onboard account.

At Your Hotel

Bandwidths may vary. Some hotels may offer an upgrade to a higher bandwidth which you may need to pay for. Some hotels may have a data cap on usage, or the free Wi-Fi may be restricted to a daily time limit per device or room. Once this usage or time limit is reached, there may be a charge to continue using the service. Factors that may reduce signal strength include high usage - particularly if lots of devices are using Wi-Fi at the same time. If your device isn't connected to Wi-Fi, remember to turn off data roaming to avoid possible data charges. Due to factors outside of our control we can't guarantee the availability, performance or security of the Wi-Fi provided.

Your Opinion

We ask customers travelling with us to fill in a Customer Satisfaction Questionnaire online when they get home, and to rate various aspects of their holiday experience. All the questionnaires are analysed by an independent market research company.

Protecting gentle giants

The TUI Care Foundation supports projects in holiday destinations around the world that are improving the lives of young people, caring for the natural world and helping local communities thrive.

When you cruise with us, a £1 donation is added to your onboard account. This is to support sustainable tourism in a way that benefits the local people and environment, now and in the future. For example, our Turtle Aid programme has protected over one million turtles and created turtle-friendly habitats to help safeguard the endangered global sea turtle population.

This donation is optional – if you wish to remove it, simply speak to Reception. And, if you'd like to donate more or adopt a turtle, please visit tuicarefoundation.com/en/take-action

Keeping the seas shining

At TUI, we're doing what we can to make our ships more environmentally friendly. We're reducing how much water and energy we use to get from place to place and making changes to the way our ships run. Like improving our water efficiency with better onboard water systems, and keeping track of how much energy we use so we can watch our carbon footprint.

We're cutting down on plastics as much as possible too, so you won't find plastic straws or cocktail stirrers at any of our onboard bars, or plastic jam or butter portions in our restaurants.

You can do your bit by taking part in our Food Waste Challenge, which is helping us to keep food waste to a minimum.
