Your big day your way

We know that when it comes to weddings, one size doesn't fit all.
Whatever kind of celebration you have in mind, we've got you covered...

Legal weddings
Lots of our weddings abroad are also legally recognised in the UK – they don't have to take place in a church, you just need a registrar to perform the ceremony.

Religious venues
You can get married in certain churches and chapels. In Cyprus, you can have a symbolic wedding or a legal ceremony in an Anglican Church.

Symbolic weddings
Symbolic ceremonies remove all the paperwork. You can have your dream ceremony abroad, and if you want to, you can legally marry in the UK before or after you go.

Unique venues
You're not limited to a hotel ceremony. You can pick from other venues, too, like historic buildings, museum grounds, manicured gardens or a luxury yacht.

Renewal of vows
Whether it's your first anniversary or you tied the knot years ago, there's never a bad time to relive your big day.

Renew your vows on a cruise
If you fancy celebrating your vows on the high seas, you can pick between three special packages – Silver, Gold and Platinum – while on one of our Marella Cruises sailings.

Beach weddings
Smudging footprints in the sand and having your veil carried by the sea breeze – the stuff of beach wedding daydreams.

Winter weddings
Winter weddings don't have to be defined by rainy days and nippy nights – lots of our warmer destinations offer weddings throughout the winter. You can pick from Barbados, Jamaica, Mexico, Dominican Republic, St Lucia, Dubai, Cyprus, Egypt, Greece, Tenerife, Maldives, Mauritius, Thailand and Turkey.

Same-sex weddings

From beachfront settings in Mexico to hillside restaurants in Ibiza, we've lined up some beautiful venues for same-sex ceremonies and blessings.

Ibiza
Raise a toast to your big day with the White Isle's world-famous sunsets as your backdrop.

Majorca
Count down to a sunny ceremony on sandy shores in Majorca

Tenerife
Swap the aisle for a sandy shore or tie the knot in front of a volcanic landscape with a Tenerife wedding.

Portugal
Dramatic scenery, wow-factor food and late-night dancing are what weddings in Portugal are all about.

Italy
Pick between Sorrento, the Amalfi Coast and Lake Garda.

Croatia
Make sure your wedding album's a showstopper with UNESCO-ticked backdrops in Croatia.

Greece
There's plenty of choice when it comes to weddings in Greece – pick from go-slow Halkidiki to wedding photo-ready Rhodes.

Cyprus
As the birthplace of Aphrodite – the goddess of love – Cyprus is a top choice for weddings.

Malta
You've got plenty of choice here – venues cover hotel options with sea views and garden settings.

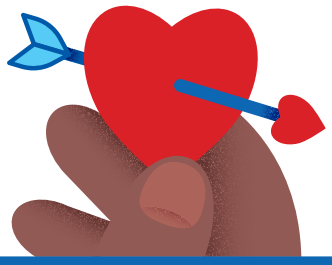

Mexico
Mexico is the land of tequila and mariachi bands, so wedding parties here are bound to be big celebrations.

Dominican Republic
Coconut trees provide shade, and the sound of the waves provides the soundtrack to your big day in the Dominican Republic.

Mauritius
White sandy aisles with an Indian Ocean backdrop.

Thailand
You can exchange vows with some of the world's best beaches in the background when you pick Thailand for your big day.

Keep your eyes peeled for these icons, as they'll tell you which types of ceremonies are available at each venue.

We know how important it is to make sure that your special day is just as you imagined it. So, we like to make sure that our specialist Weddings team is on the case from the word go.

Wedding planning timeline

We've put together a handy timeline to help you understand the logistics of getting your day booked, and what happens when...

Just engaged?
Newly engaged and want a quick turnaround? With plenty of ceremony options for the summer, your dream wedding can become a reality almost as quickly as you can say 'I do'.

The ring's on your finger

Starting to think about your dream wedding? You can call our specialist Weddings team on 0203 451 2688, or book an appointment at your local TUI Store for advice and inspiration.

2 years to 18 months to go

We have weddings on sale up to two years in advance. You can make an appointment at your local TUI Store, to see the new season's launch.

If you have your heart set on a wedding in Greece or Cyprus, you can book your wedding and get instant date confirmation at most venues around this time. Some venues in Mexico, the Dominican Republic, Jamaica, Egypt and Tenerife offer instant date confirmation, too. If one of our other destinations takes your fancy, they might not have their wedding seasons finalised yet, so you may need to wait a little longer to confirm a date. You can still start planning, though.

18 months to 1 year to go

If you haven't already, now's the time to confirm and book the venue – this should be available across all our destinations now.

All you have to do is get in touch with us and we'll book your holiday for you, then add on the wedding package and run you through your contract. Depending on which destination you choose, we'll either be able to confirm your date instantly, or it can take up to 16 weeks.

Now it's time to let your guests know – send out your save the dates and get your guests to book their holidays with TUI. It's important that their bookings are linked to your wedding booking so we can treat you as one large group – they can call the Weddings team or, if they've booked in a TUI Store, their Travel Advisor can do this for them.

And relax... it's too early to finalise details with your wedding coordinator, so you can wait to hear from them a few months before you head off.

6 months to go

Now it's time to get all the paperwork sorted. Your contract will provide some guidance to help you with this bit, but it's a good idea to get some help from a professional to make sure all your documents are correct.

3 months to go

Between two to three months before the event, you should hear from your wedding coordinator in destination. They'll want to discuss some of the finer details with you.

If you haven't already booked your wedding by this point, don't worry – plenty of our hotels and venues can work their magic and cater for a wedding at short notice.

1 month to go

It's getting close to the big day, so you can start packing your bags and get ready to go. All brides and grooms on a TUI flight get 25kg of luggage each.

This is also a good time to double-check all your paperwork is complete and to organise hotel day passes for any guests that aren't staying in the same hotel as you.

You've arrived

You're finally there – now's the time to meet with your wedding coordinator and run through all the details of your big day.

The wedding day

All the planning has led to this big day – relax, and enjoy the celebration with all your friends and family, your wedding coordinator will be on hand all day to ensure everything runs smoothly.

Don't forget to book any extras...
Your wedding coordinator will contact you a few months before your wedding to arrange any finishing touches like photos and videos, flowers and decor, music, a cake and hair and make-up. If you want wedding favours or any decorations, you'll need to organise and bring these yourself.

Want to make your trip extra special? You can upgrade your flight and toast with a glass of champagne and a box of chocolates. If you're staying for your honeymoon, you might want to upgrade your room, too.

Your questions answered

To help you start planning your big day, we've answered some of the most frequently asked questions about booking a wedding abroad.

How many destinations can I choose from and does this brochure include all of them?

The weddings you'll find in this brochure are just a snapshot of what we offer. You can choose between 18 wedding destinations, from Greece and Italy, to Mexico and Barbados.

How does the booking process work?

Our expert team will book your holiday for you, and then add on your chosen wedding package. Your guests' bookings can be made separately, but all your party's bookings need to be linked. Your guests can do this by calling the Weddings team, or if they book in a TUI Store their Travel Advisor can do this for them.

How much should I expect to pay when it comes to my wedding package deposit?

It really depends on the destination and venue. A deposit can range from anywhere between £400 and 50% of the entire wedding package cost. Bear in mind that you'll need to pay a deposit for the holiday part of your booking, too.

What's the latest/earliest we can book a wedding?

We recommend booking your wedding at least six months in advance, to give you time to arrange all the legal bits. In destinations like Mexico or Cyprus, you can book as late as two months before. And, for those who like a lot of planning time, you can book right up until October 2028.

How long does it take to get a date confirmed?

For most venues in Greece and Cyprus – and some venues in Mexico, the Dominican Republic, Jamaica, Egypt and Tenerife – we're able to confirm your date at the time of booking. For all other destinations, it can take between eight to 16 weeks to get a date confirmed. Your wedding coordinator will sort this out for you.

What documents do we need?

Your contract will provide guidance on the documents you'll need for your wedding. The information will be correct at the time it was written, but local rules can change often. So, we recommend getting help from a professional to ensure all your paperwork is correct before you travel.

When will I hear from you after I've booked?

After you've booked – unless you contact us to ask any questions – you won't hear from us until a few months before your wedding. Your in-resort wedding coordinator will reach out to sort any details, including booking make-up artists, hairstylists and meals in your hotel.

When will I get my marriage certificate?

Usually, you'll get your marriage certificate while you're away. Sometimes, it'll be sent to you once you get home.

What will our luggage allowance be?

All brides and grooms on a TUI flight get a 25kg luggage allowance each.

Can we travel under our married names?

You must travel under the name on your passport. If you're changing your name, you can have your passport amended when you're back home.

Are discounts available for large group bookings?

There is a guest discount available when you book in a TUI Store.

Do our guests have to stay in the same hotel as us?

It depends on the hotel. Some properties offer day passes for guests who aren't staying at the hotel, while others will ask that a certain number of your wedding guests stay at the same place as you.

Can we stay in one hotel and get married in a different hotel?

No – however you can get married at a venue outside of the hotel. Flick through this brochure to see our selection of churches, restaurants and scenic settings.

To find out more about the legal bits and bobs, turn to page 12.

Royalton
Luxury Resorts

Royalton specialises in happy ever afters

The combination of porcelain beaches and manicured gardens make for picture-perfect ceremonies at the Royalton Luxury Resorts.

What's more, there are finishing touches to add, including late-night food stations and romantic sunset dinners on the sands. There are hotels sprinkled around the Dominican Republic, Jamaica and Mexico designed for all types of weddings, including small and intimate affairs, big parties, events for the whole family or adults-only celebrations at the Hideaway Royalton hotels.

Royalton Punta Cana, Dominican Republic

You've got the option of not one, but three wedding gazebos when you marry at Royalton Punta Cana. Your big day can unfold within tropical gardens, on an aisle of wedding-dress white sand or at the centre of a beautiful, open-air plaza.

You can follow your vows with gourmet dining and free-flowing bubbly in one of the hotel's restaurants. With a terrace dining set-up, a row of palms will be the only thing separating your party from the ocean.

Royalton Blue Waters & Royalton Negril, Jamaica

If you've got your heart set on a Jamaican wedding, there's the Royalton Blue Waters and the Royalton Negril to choose from.

At Royalton Blue Waters, bamboo canopies and flower-decorated arches set the scene for ceremonies. It's nestled on the shores of Montego Bay, so you can make your first toast with the Caribbean Sea as your backdrop. At Royalton Negril, meanwhile, you can walk down the aisle on a shimmering, seven-mile-long beach.

Royalton Splash Riviera Cancun, Mexico

This hotel comes with a trio of ceremony locations to choose from. You can turn the sand into your aisle with a barefoot beach ceremony, or admire the sea views from above on the Grazie Ocean View Terrace. If you really want to make the most of the panoramic sea views, you can pick the Sky Terrace.

If that's not enough choice, there are three other Royaltons in Mexico dotted along the east coast. The Hideaway at Royalton Rivera Cancun is for adults-only events and the Royalton Riviera Cancun and Royalton Chic Cancun offer beachfront ceremonies.

Majorca

Spain

Weddings in Spain have everything from sangria and tapas to sunset-filled skies and soft, sandy aisles.

All ceremonies here are blessings, which means if you'd like to be legally married, you'll need to get married back in Blighty before or after your big day.

Stunning settings
Ibiza's well known for its party scene, but there's plenty more to this place than the bars and clubs that have a habit for pulling all-nighters. Looks-wise, there's no clear front runner amongst the Balearic Islands, but when it comes to sunsets, it's clear Ibiza takes the crown. They make for an unbeatable backdrop for your wedding photos, with Champagne toasts and pictures of your party set against a stunning skyline.

Artistic inspiration
Majorca's good looks have earned it the nickname Jewel Of The Med, so it's a natural choice for island weddings. Marriages here begin on soft, sandy beaches, in the gardens of blush-coloured country mansions and at chic marinas with ocean views. The island's rolling green hills are dotted with cottages and blossom trees. And on the coast, swathes of sand line emerald waters. So it's no wonder Majorca has inspired artists for centuries.

Honeymoon high
Another Spanish island with backdrops of a wedding photographer's dream is Tenerife – the biggest of the Canary Islands. You can swap the aisle for black sand or tie the knot in front of a volcanic landscape. And, when the weddings over, you can kick-start your adventure-packed honeymoon straight away. You've got national parks galore, where you can hike hand-in-hand, and romantic stargazing tours under some of the clearest skies in the world.

Maiori Town Hall

- Stunning historic wedding venue
- Ornate indoor or garden location
- Wedding coordinator

You'll be treading in the footsteps of Spartans when you tie the knot in Maiori. This pretty seaside town has been a popular tourist resort since Roman times, and it's easy to see why – it has the longest unbroken stretch of beach on the Amalfi coast.

The Town Hall here is cradled in the 18th-century Palazzo Mezzacapo in the heart of Maiori. You'll say your vows in the ornate ceremonial room on the first floor, where the walls are lined with frescoes. Or, you can choose to get married in the intimate garden, which holds hands with the building.

When it comes to having your pictures taken, head to the coast and pose against the silky blue waters of the Tyrrhenian Sea. Later, have your first meal as man and wife in one of Maiori's restaurants. Your wedding coordinator will have the inside information on where to choose when you get there.

Torri del Benaco Castle

- A castle with unique charm
- Choice of wedding ceremony locations
- Wedding coordinator

Dating back to the 13th century, this medieval castle is the ultimate in fairytale venues. Battlement walls, exposed stonework and a sky-high tower make up the exteriors, and you can choose from three spots to make your promises.

Firstly, there's the ceremony room. It's really rustic, with stone walls, white linen and candlelight setting the scene. Alternatively, you can opt to say your vows among lemon groves in the Italian sunshine, or up in the castle tower, looking out over the lake and surrounding mountains.

If you want to add a musical element to your special day, the violin is a popular choice, as it's in keeping with the traditional vibe of the castle. When it comes to photos, meanwhile, not only have you got romantic spots all around the castle to capture, but the surroundings are incredible – this place puts the lake and the mountains to one side of you, and olive groves and vineyards to the other.

You can't get a more regal wedding venue than a palace. A winding cobbled street leads you up to the entrance, and there's a lake right in front of it as well as a small garden.

Weddings are held in the upstairs hall – it's a large frescoed room with windows looking out over the water. For your wedding photos, head out onto the small balcony, where you'll have the lake as your backdrop.

Pula

Croatia

If you want your wedding album to run rings around everyone else's, marry in Croatia.

Weddings in Croatia are a little less ordinary. The country is only just starting to surface as a place to tie the knot. As such, wedding albums made here can be as individual as a signature.

Historic settings
When you make your promises in Porec, UNESCO-certified sights squeeze into your wedding scenes. Meanwhile, over in Rovinj, your wedding day backdrop can take the shape of a pretty harbour where fishing boats bob.

Traditional touches
Our Croatian weddings take place in historic town halls, each one paired with a different reception venue. Plus, you can customise your wedding with Croatian traditions, like taking your first dance to the sound of traditional tamburica folk music, played on strings. Or, lift a glass of plummy rakija brandy to make your toasts.

Back to nature
Croatia and honeymoons go hand in hand as well. The thousand-plus islands that pepper the country's coastline were made for escaping. And you can also drop off the grid in Croatia's national parks. In places like Krka National Park, fir trees and waterfalls will be the only company you'll keep outside of one another.

LEGAL REQUIREMENTS
These vary by country. See page 12 for a full breakdown.

Flight time
2 hrs 30 mins

Destination airports
Pula (for the Istrian Riviera)

Weather
Along the Croatian coast, you can expect a Mediterranean climate made up of long hot summers and mild winters. The best time for a wedding here is between early June and late September.

Flight time shown above is from London Gatwick and should be used as a rough guide, as they can vary.

Porec Town Hall

- Historical setting
- Plenty of photo opportunities
- Harbourfront restaurants nearby

The Istrian Riviera is making a name for itself as the new Tuscany. And Porec is right in the centre of it. The town hall itself is in the heart of the old town, less than a minute's walk from the UNESCO World Heritage Euphrasian Basilica. The 16th-century bell tower and spire of this building make a memorable backdrop for wedding photographs, as does the harbour, which is a minute's walk in the opposite direction.

Fishing and pleasure boats bob in the moorings here, and there's a pretty waterside promenade that's colonnaded with red-roofed houses and Roman-style villas. Porec's a great place for wedding breakfasts, too. There are lots of special places on the waterfront. Some offer a white table and candlelight experience, others serve hearty home-cooked food in rustic surroundings.

Pula Town Hall

- Ninth-century venue
- Historical photo backdrops
- Pretty beach nearby

Choose Pula Town Hall as your wedding venue, and you'll make your promises in the centre of Forum Square, the historical heart of the area.

The building itself began life as an ancient Roman temple, and only started being used as the city hall from the 9th century. Since then, it's undergone several reconstructions, and now showcases Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque architectural styles.

After your ceremony, you'll head outside for photographs. Choose to have the cobbled square as your backdrop, or wander down to the beach where the azure Adriatic Sea sets the scene. Afterwards, you'll make your way to a local restaurant to clink glasses and toast to the future. For an authentic touch to your wedding breakfast, opt for a Croatian musician playing the traditional sopila.

Skiathos Town

Greece

Colour-code your wedding on Greece's blue and white isles.

Corfu
Take one look at Corfu and you'll see why it's called the Emerald Isle. It's covered in olive-cloaked hills, huge vineyards and cypress trees, so it's not short on big-day backdrops. Along the coast, you'll find perfect swathes of golden sand, while in the capital, Corfu Town, winding streets are lined with pretty churches and art museums.

Zante
Pristine beaches, craggy cliffs and plunging valleys – with its incredible scenery, Zante is perfect wedding territory. There's lots of choice when it comes to deciding where to walk down the aisle, and some of the venues have outside terraces.

Halkidiki
A three-fingered peninsula clinging to the mainland, Halkidiki offers up all the Greek stereotypes. Cue pretty fishing villages, crumbling ruins and monasteries set high in the hills. You can have your ceremony in one of the region's town halls.

Skiathos
Skiathos is one of the more untouched Greek Islands, so if you're after a slice of authentic Greece for your big day, you'll strike gold here. The whole place is a picture of old villages, olive groves and orchards.

Santorini
Clinging to a volcanic crater, Santorini packs a serious punch on the scenery front. We're talking blue-domed churches, cobbled alleyways and whitewashed houses that tumble down the hillsides. Weddings abroad don't get much more scenic than this.

Crete
Crete is the biggest and the oldest of all the Greek Islands, so it's a bit of an expert when it comes to weddings. Not only does it offer up fantastic settings for your big day, it provides loads of things to do when the ceremony's done and dusted. Visit the Palace of Knossos, for instance, or hire a car and go off the beaten track.

Kos
The island of Kos is home to every type of beach you can think of, from white sandy swathes to tiny, rocky coves. Turn your attention inland, however, and the scenery comes curtesy of whitewashed villages and flower-blanketed fields

Rhodes
If you like the idea of stepping back in time, Rhodes should be on your big-day radar. Its old town is a World Heritage Site, and one of the finest Medieval citadels in existence. Rhodes also boasts the best sunshine record of all the Greek Islands.

Kalithea Springs

- Clifftop location
- Venue shrouded in legend
- Aegean Sea backdrop

Save a seat for Apollo, the Greek god of healing, when you tie the knot at the Kalithea Spa. The cliffside where you'll say your vows is infused with spring waters which have been known for their healing properties since ancient times.

Your ceremony will usually take place in the Spa Dome, with the Mediterranean sun flooding in through the open port holes and traditional arches of the whitewashed walls. After you've made your promises, you can head outside to have your photographs taken with the sea in the background.

Kalithea has a reputation for being one of the best-looking places in Rhodes, so chances are you won't want to stray far from the town for your reception. And, because the majority of local tavernas are well-practised when it comes to wedding breakfasts, you won't have to. Some eateries even offer Champagne cruises from the spa to their venues. Have a word with your Weddings Advisor and they'll help you arrange everything.

Blue Lagoon

Cyprus

According to legend, Cyprus is the birthplace of the Goddess of Love, Aphrodite – so it's no wonder this island's a popular choice for a destination wedding.

Sandy beaches, ancient sights, sleepy villages... what's not to love about a wedding in Cyprus, where you can marry in beachfront hotels and age-old chapels.

Paphos
The Paphos region lines up loads of wedding-worthy scenery, from Blue Flag beaches to forest-cloaked hills. You can tie the knot in venues like town halls, quaint churches and seafront hotels. And once the ceremony's over, there's loads to explore here, like the temples and forts in the history-drenched old town.

Larnaca
The Larnaca region is home to the neon-lit town of Ayia Napa, so people really know how to throw parties around here. That's not all Larnaca has to offer, though. Peaceful beaches and sprawling countryside are in plentiful supply. As for wedding venues, you can pick from beachfront hotels and historic chapels.

Weddings at this place could be on the Mediterranean terrace or in the boat venue on the beach. You'll be kitted out with a gazebo, along with a ceremony table and chairs. When you're not busy getting hitched, there's a waterpark with lots of slides, and a mini splash park for little paddlers.

If you'd prefer to stay dry, there are plenty of other options for you to get stuck in to. You can watch a movie in the cinema, solve some puzzles in the escape room and play games in the arcade. Then, when it's time to eat, five restaurants headline the food scene.

You can have a legal or symbolic ceremony here, or a renewal of vows. A wedding reception isn't included in this package, but you can book one directly with the hotel, subject to availability – just chat to your wedding coordinator.

Imperial Island Resort by Louis Hotels

TTTTT

The clue's in the name with the Imperial Island Resort by Louis Hotels – previously called Hotel Louis Imperial Beach – which underwent a big renovation for summer 2026. This place is just a stone's throw from sandy shores, and it does everything on a grand scale. Think a big outdoor pool area, where adults and kids get a pair of pools each to cool off in, plus a mix of international eateries. We're talking a gourmet burger joint, a Japanese fusion restaurant and a buffet with show-cooking stations.

Things get even more impressive when it comes to activities. Pack your workout gear, and you can perfect your serve during tennis games or join in with aerobics classes, while little ones and teens hang out at the kids' clubs. Family daytrips are on the cards, too – the Tombs of the Kings and Paphos Castle are just a 15-minute drive away. No judgement if you plan on hanging around the hotel all holiday, though. Lazy days are best spent getting massages* in the spa.

St Paul's Pillar - Ayia Kyriaki Church

- Beautiful church
- Historic and religious location
- Traditional venue

You'll have history at your fingertips if you get married in this pretty church. Dating back to the 12th century, it stands among the ruins of St. Paul's Pillar, close to Paphos harbour. All crumbled columns, the ruins were once a Roman forum and contain a pillar where it's believed St. Paul was lashed for preaching Christianity.

The church itself is really magical. Built in pale stone, it's hung with icons and shining chandeliers, so the inside feels very sacred. And, like with a church in England, you can choose to have organ music playing, with the notes echoing around the walls. What's more, there's room for 180 people inside and the stonework keeps the interior refreshingly cool on hot days.

After the ceremony, you'll walk out through the wooden doorway into the sunshine. The views from here are magnificent, with the Roman relics and colonnades stretching before you. With the church in the background, it all makes a really atmospheric setting for photographs.

Ceremonies take place in a courtyard filled with flowering jasmine and bougainvillea, or in a eucalyptus garden for bigger parties. Guests will perch on decorated wooden chairs as you enter through a beautiful old arch and walk up the aisle to your other half.

Post-ceremony drinks are served in the rustic winter tavern, which features beamed ceilings, exposed stone walls and an old fireplace. You'll then move out to the terrace, where tables dressed in crisp white linen are set up beneath a grapevine-draped pergola. Paphos Town Hall

- Beautiful Neoclassical building
- Tucked away in gardens
- Set in the heart of the old town

This place is all about traditional elegance. Cue a neoclassical building flanked by a beautiful porch. It's set back from the road, with a wide pathway leading through tall pines and manicured gardens, giving it a real air of seclusion. That said, it's actually in a really convenient spot in the heart of the old town, so it's great if you've got guests coming along.

You've got two rooms to choose from for the ceremony itself – a large one with statement double doors and a smaller, more intimate venue that fits up to 20 people. Both are kitted out with dark wooden chairs, elegant chandeliers and leather-topped tables, giving them a really smart feel. Outside, meanwhile, grand columns provide the backdrop for your first photographs. And you'll find plenty more snap-worthy spots in the gardens.

Geroskipou Town Hall

- Beautiful lawns for photos
- Large venue to cater for guests

Yermasoyia Cultural Centre

- Converted traditional Cypriot village house
- Photos taken in the landscaped gardens
- Decorated car to the town hall

You'll get backstage access to the real Cyprus when you tie the knot at the Yermasoyia Cultural Centre. This place has been converted from a traditional village house, where generations of Cypriots would have grown up.

Your ceremony will take place in the whitewashed wedding room, which you'll enter through a broad open archway. You can't be camera shy when you say your vows here – there are too many choices of backdrops for the wedding album. There's the landscaped gardens, where the countours of the venue's former form are still visible. Smile for the camera here and you'll be watched by the plump palm trees that dot the manicured grass. Alternatively, there's the virginal-white stones of the church of St Paraskevi and the traditional narrow alleyways that weave around the centre.

When it comes to your reception make the ten-minute drive to Cyprus' second biggest city, Limassol. Here, you can take your pick from restaurants serving food from all over the world. Your Wedding Advisor will be on hand when you arrive to help you choose the best spot.

Mellieha

Malta

Malta weddings come with dreamy sunsets and sweeping sea views. With year-round warm weather and a mixture of beach and city vibes, this island's an easy winner.

Tying the knot in Malta is as convenient as it is romantic. It's only around a three-hour flight away and has lots of English speakers, making it as easy as pie to plan a wedding here.

Most wedding ceremonies here overlook the Mediterranean Sea, meaning you'll bag some stellar photos – especially as the sun starts to set. Depending on your chosen venue, you could get married in a pretty spot by a beach or on an open-air terrace.

The best of both worlds
Malta's most popular wedding resorts are within easy reach of peacock-blue coastlines and cities jam-packed with culture. If you have guests with different interests, this will be music to your ears – some of them can roll out a towel and sunbathe as they prep for the wedding, while the rest go exploring in the nearest old town.

A two-in-one destination
Why not make the most of your time in Malta and combine your wedding trip with your honeymoon? You'll still be in that newlywed bubble, and there are bags of places to stay, so you can easily have a change of scenery. You could head for the bustling streets of Valletta, if that's your thing, or take things slower and opt for a peaceful few days in Gozo or Mdina.

Kemer, Antalya

Turkey

With a stretch of more than 8,000 kilometres and shores on the edge of four different seas, Turkey counts its coastline as one of its best features.

Our wedding venues spread themselves out along the country's photo-ready shores, from Izmir in the west to the areas of Dalaman and Antalya on its southwest stretch.

Izmir
Turkey's third-largest city cosies up to the Aegean Sea on Turkey's west coast. The town of Kusadasi is the big name when it comes to holidays here – it's got more beaches than days of the week and an old town that's struck a perfect blend between old and new. Ephesus' well worth a visit, too – the ancient city's only a 30-minute drive away.

Dalaman
Dalaman delivers on world-class beaches in spade loads – the town of Fethiye is famous for its silk-soft sands and its buzzing old town. Meanwhile, over in slowed-down Sarigerme, a seven-kilometre stretch of shallow-and-sandy beaches are a big hit for wedding parties with mini wedding guests in tow.

Antalya
Antalya forms part of Turkey's southwest coastal stretch known as the Turkish Riviera. It gets its name thanks to the turquoise waters that sit on its shores and the pretty villages and towns that pepper the land close by. The coast stretches for more than 400 miles, giving you plenty of room to take some time for two after the big day.

LEGAL REQUIREMENTS
These vary by country. See page 12 for a full breakdown.

Weather
Turkey hots up around Easter, with temperatures in the early 20s. By July, they'll often surpass the 30°C mark. Autumn's still pretty warm, and even in winter, you can expect temperatures between 15 and 20°C.

Flight time shown above is from London Gatwick and should be used as a rough guide, as they can vary.

Red Sea

Egypt

Raise a toast by the Red Sea or say 'I do' with the golden sand as your backdrop with a wedding in Egypt.

Cleopatra and Mark Anthony – one of Egypt's greatest love stories – is one that even Shakespeare couldn't resist writing about. Why not write your own love story by exchanging vows along the sand-smothered shoreline. Just so you know, all ceremonies here are symbolic, so the legal part will need to be done in the UK before you travel.

Sharm El Sheikh Ceremonies
Feel like an Egyptian god or goddess as you walk barefoot along the sand with the Red Sea right in front of you. And, with a 35-kilometre-long shoreline, Sharm El Sheikh gives you plenty of sandy aisles to choose from. If a beach backdrop isn't for you, you can swap it out for the rolling dunes of the desert.

Hurghada honeymoons
Have a laidback ceremony in a private garden or on a terrace with panoramic views of the Red Sea setting the scene. Then, dial the tempo right up with an action-packed honeymoon full of snorkelling, desert quad biking and sandboarding.

Cancun celebrations
Mexico's Caribbean Coast is the perfect pick for your big day. It's home to Cancun, where you'll find a beach that's as shiny as your engagement ring – the sand's made up from fossil fragments that sparkle when they catch the sun. In fact, there are 22 kilometres of beach here in total, so you're not short of scenic spots to say "I do".

Romance along the Riviera Maya
Further south, there's the Riviera Maya, where five-star hotels nuzzle up to silky beaches. These are the places where you can walk down an aisle of tiki torches before saying your vows on the sand. You've got adventure on your doorstep, too, thanks to a landscape of jungles, cenotes and underwater caves.

Noteworthy post-nuptials
Honeymoons in Mexico are filled with red letter moments. You can take speedboats out to desert islands, snorkel together in coral reefs, and hike rainforest trails. Plus, reminders of Mexico's past are never more than a daytrip away. Stand in the shadow of the colossal temples at Chichen Itza or navigate the ruins at seafront Tulum.

White sand and snorkel-friendly waters lie just beyond the hotel – they'll feature in your wedding album if you opt to exchange rings on one of the nearby beaches. You can also tie the knot under a gazebo or at a mirador – a Spanish viewpoint.

There's lots to do before and after your big day at this place. Buggies whisk you around all the bars and restaurants, and there are two pools – one beachside, and a long, winding number dotted with bridges, palm trees and parasols. Plus, there's a casino within the hotel grounds.

You can pick from a legal, symbolic or vow renewal ceremony here. And afterwards, you can have a private or a semi-private reception dinner in one of the hotel's restaurants, depending on which package you choose.

If variety's the spice of life, then this place highlights it to the full. There's a restaurant and a bar for every day of the week, plus a four-strong choice of pools, so even the fussiest sorts won't be short of eating, drinking and swimming spots.

It's right on the beach, too, so you can flit between the pools and the sands in seconds. Just so you know, the beach is quite rocky, so it might be a good idea to pack water shoes. The hotel's activity list's pretty lengthy as well, with the likes of scuba diving and snorkelling on the cards.

Sun, sand and sea are the main ingredients in this tropical cocktail of a hotel. Swap your wedding outfit for a swimming cozzie, and you can go for dips in a quartet of pools, including an adults-only option with a swim-up bar. Five restaurants have dining covered and you can get snacks 24 hours a day. The Riu Yucatan and the Riu Playacar are just over the road – you can use some of their facilities, too. Seven Mile Beach, Negril

Jamaica

Wedding days are full-colour on this no-worries island.

Jamaica has the biggest personality of all the Caribbean islands and, as a result, even white weddings are colourful here. After all, this is the country where you can get married on horseback in the grounds of a plantation, or in the space between the stories at an antiques museum. Most wedding ceremonies, though, take place on the beach. You can have a matter of metres between the hem of your wedding dress and the Caribbean Sea when you say your vows.

Spiced-up receptions
Wedding breakfasts are anything but pale in Jamaica. The 5-star hotels in this part of the world spin traditional dishes into nouvelle cuisine. Think along the lines of akee and salt fish filos for appetisers and Jamaican steak for entrees. When it comes to the wedding cake, you can have tiers of sticky, boozy, fruit cake. Celebrations run through Jamaica's veins. Toast, re-toast, and nightcap your way through your post-nuptial party with the local rum.

Honeymoons to remember
Jamaican honeymoons play out in high definition rather than soft cell. In Montego Bay, cliff jumpers divert your attention from the sunset at dusk. And Dunn's River Falls takes the 'im' from the front of 'possible', as you find out together how to climb a waterfall.

LEGAL REQUIREMENTS
These vary by country. See page 12 for a full breakdown.

Weather

Jamaica's Caribbean location means it enjoys balmy temperatures all year round. The summer months see temperatures topping 30 degrees. Winter is still toasty by UK standards – expect the mercury to hover in the mid to high 20s.

Flight time shown above is from London Gatwick and should be used as a rough guide, as they can vary.

- Massages for two on the sand

This hotel's tucked away in a crescent-shaped bay, where the Caribbean Sea washes on shortbread-coloured shores. Where could be more ideal for newlywed walks on the beach?

Ceremony-wise, you've got two options. Either get married on a terrace overlooking the sea, or say 'I do' on the beach – that's whether you opt for a legal, symbolic or vow-renewal ceremony. We'll also throw in things like coloured decorations, pre-recorded music and a bridal bouquet with a matching buttonhole.

For your wedding reception, you can pick from a private or semi-private dinner for your wedding party. You'll dine in the restaurant or location of your choice.

Saona Island

Dominican Republic

Tropical shores are ten-a-penny in the Dominican Republic. Ceremonies are simple in this part of the world, and usually play out under a pergola on porcelain sands, with coconut palms for shade and just the sound of the waves in the background.

Beautiful receptions
Newlyweds can retreat to five-star luxury once they've promised to have and to hold. Lots of weddings in the Dominican Republic take place on private beaches belonging to lavish seafront hotels. This makes for elegant receptions, with gourmet dining and flowing bottles of fizz.

Tropical surroundings
The Dominican Republic is perfect for exploring as a twosome. The heart of the country is defined by vast jungle, which cocoons waterfalls, tropical blooms, and exotic wildlife – there are around 290 different species of bird alone here. Make time to also wander hand-in-hand through Santa Domingo, the nation's colourful colonial capital.

Marry in Punta Cana
We offer weddings in Punta Cana on the Dominican Republic's eastern edge. The beaches here are rated among the best in the world, thanks to more than 50 miles of white-sand coast that runs from Bavaro to Uvero and beyond. And most of it's backed by coconut-bearing palm trees – earning this region the title of the Coconut Coast.

These vary by country.

Bridgetown Marina

Barbados

Barbados weddings are perfect for tying the knot on the sand at any time of year.

Think Barbados, think beach wedding. This Caribbean island's got 92 kilometres of silky sand to shout about, and it's all accompanied by coconut-studded palm trees and glass-clear waters.

A year-round wedding destination
Barbados has got your wedding covered no matter what time of year you want to get married. You can have legal or symbolic ceremonies here, as well as vow renewals. It's a popular spot for a beachfront ceremony, plus the hotels here can cater for small weddings as well as big-scale affairs.

Beachside romance
You're certainly not short of a shore to say your vows on if you fancy tying the knot in Barbados. Hotels in St Lawrence and St James serve up weddings on ice-white sandy beaches, complete with all the Caribbean trimmings. We're talking island-produced rum, jaunty calypso music and fresh-from-the-net seafood.

Hello honeymoon
One of the best things about getting married in Barbados is that your Caribbean honeymoon starts the very next day. The island's packed with things to see and do, with everything from watersports and scuba diving to tours of UNESCO-listed towns up for grabs. Or, if kicking back on the sand with a cocktail is more your vibe, take your pick from the island's best beaches – peaceful Maxwell, and swan-white Holetown Beach in St James, a few standouts.

Pitons

St Lucia

Let St Lucia's romantic vistas provide the backdrop to your big day.

The majestic Twin Pitons. Black and white sand beaches. A bustling north and a go-slow south. St Lucia is an island of perfect matches, so there's no better place to start your life as a two. It majors in dramatic scenery, with jungle-clad mountains brushing shoulders with sugar-white beaches. Some say that's how it got its nickname, Helen of the West, after mythical beauty, Helen of Troy.

Standout settings
St Lucia lends itself well to al fresco weddings. You can make your promises under a garden gazebo, or by the lapping waves of the Caribbean Sea. On the west coast, the quiet bays are a wedding photographer's dream – ivory sands merge into thick jungle-covered hillside.

A honeymoon favourite
As for honeymoons, St Lucia is a front-runner. Days can be spent snorkelling in gin-clear waters, showering under beach waterfalls or enjoying ocean-view massages in a 5-star hotel. Away from the sands, things take an adventurous turn with everything from rainforest hikes and aerial tram rides to scuba diving.

The Maldives

Hotels here are set on their own islands which are ringed by colourful house reefs, so weddings in the Maldives are like no other.

The Maldives is known for its romantic scenes, so where better to tie the knot? Symbolic ceremonies here take away all the legal hassle, so all you have to do is pick the best hotel for your picture-perfect wedding.

White weddings
The beaches are coated in sands as white as your wedding dress, and the Indian Ocean's turquoise waters shine a vibrant blue that you'll only find in the Maldives. Plus, lots of the hotels have their own private island, so you don't need to worry about crowds interrupting your special day.

Honeymoon-ready hotels
Honeymooners pick the Maldives year after year, and it's no wonder why. The archipelago's trademark stilted water villas mean you can spot sharks, rays and turtles from your room, and king-size beds usually come as standard. The dining scene consists of romantic candlelit dinners and exotic fruit-filled buffet spreads.

Zanzibar

When you get married here, you get the crème de la crème when it comes to scenery – think leggy palm trees and sand as white as a wedding dress.

Zanzibar's a jungle-green island that sits just off the coast of Tanzania, surrounded by the Indian Ocean. If you're seeking out a far-flung wedding in a tropical setting, this place is somewhere you can say 'I do' to.

A postcard-perfect backdrop
Sandy-toed ceremonies are easy breezy in Zanzibar – it has miles of flour-soft sands, so beach weddings feel like a no-brainer. Your wedding snaps will come with a dreamy backdrop of sapphire-blue waves and coconut palms. And if you'd rather not get your dress sandy, there are options to say your vows in gardens and on pretty terraces, too.

Snippets of local culture
Want to put an east-African stamp on your wedding in Zanzibar? There are plenty of ways to add a sprinkle of local culture – you could opt for traditional food to be served at your wedding breakfast, for example. Or, you could transform the dancefloor with some live local music during your reception.

Post-vow adventures
The excitement needn't stop when the big day's over in Zanzibar. You can carry on your celebrations in the best way – by gathering your wedding party and going on safari. Want to catch a glimpse of elephants, lions, giraffes and rhinos? Add a tour to your trip, ticking off some of Tanzania's most thriving national parks. Talk about putting the cherry on the cake.

Flying with other airlines

We've teamed up with leading airlines to give you even more holiday choice.

More destinations

We know that hunting for a holiday is much easier when you've got more choice. That's why we work with over 20 other airlines, to provide you with the exact dates, airports and durations that you want. Flexible flying also means we can open to the door to a variety of holiday hotspots, from Mykonos and Kenya to the Maldives and Antigua.

TUI service as standard

While you're away, it goes without saying that the high-standard service you've come to expect from TUI will still be present and correct. Your holiday is still ATOL protected, too. And who you're flying with doesn't affect the support you'll get from us while you're away – you can get in touch with us around the clock if you need to.

Airline partners

We package up holidays with airlines we trust, as well as our own award-winning TUI Airways fleet. All the partner airlines we use have met the same rigorous international safety standards as TUI Airways.

Seats & extras

Your seat on the plane

Your seats will be allocated to you when you check in. If you're travelling with a child under the age of 12, we'll make sure they're sat with at least one adult in your party – sat with means next to, across an aisle, or in front or behind.

Select your seat

Choose your exact seats from a plan of the plane by opting for our Select Your Seat service. You can add this on at the time of booking, or afterwards.

Seat upgrades

Extra Legroom Seats give from two extra inches on your seat pitch. And Extra Space Seats come with over eight inches of extra legroom, often without a row of seats in front - so you can expect a lot more space. You can opt for either of these at the time of booking or afterwards.

*Not included if you book flights only

†The vast majority of long-haul TUI flights are on the 787 Dreamliner, but this is not guaranteed

Terms & Conditions for your wedding package

These wedding terms and conditions apply to all new TUI UK wedding bookings with departure dates from 1st May 2027 onwards. All weddings due to depart before this time will be subject to terms set out in the couple's TUI UK Wedding Contract.

When you book a wedding package with TUI UK, you are contracting with TUI UK Limited, Company Number 02830117, Registered Office: Wigmore House, Wigmore Lane, Luton, Bedfordshire, LU2 9TN ("TUI UK").

Accuracy

We published this brochure in October 2026. Our prices and details were accurate on that date but they may have changed since then. We will tell you of any changes we know about when you book. If you've already booked, we'll tell you about any major changes we're aware of as soon as we can.

Important information to note

Our weddings do not include accommodation or flights.

If you would like to book a TUI UK wedding package with us, the wedding couple must always also have a confirmed package holiday with TUI UK. It is not possible to book a wedding with TUI UK without an existing package holiday booking e.g. accommodation and flights.

All TUI UK wedding packages and wedding services are subject to availability.

Please note: standard travel insurance policies do not cover weddings. We strongly recommend that you take out suitable wedding insurance at the time of booking in addition to your travel insurance.

Our Wedding Contract (which contains details of your wedding inclusions, venue and general document/information guides), our confirmation pack and our Wedding Terms and Conditions, collectively form our Wedding Agreement with you for your wedding arrangements.

Our Wedding Agreement is supplemental to TUI UK's Our Agreement with you and Yours with Us, which can be read on the next page, and continues to apply to your package holiday booking - e.g. your accommodation and flights. Our Wedding Agreement together with TUI UK's Our Agreement form our entire agreement with you.

In the event of conflict between the terms of our Wedding Agreement and TUI UK's Our Agreement, the terms of this wedding contract shall prevail.

Our Wedding Agreement is made under the laws of England and Wales. You submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of those courts. You can choose the law and jurisdiction of Scotland or Northern Ireland but only if you live there.

Providing Information

Please ensure that all information that you provide us with is correct.

Booking Your Wedding

When you book your wedding, you will need to sign our Wedding Contract. We will only deal with the lead named passenger on your package holiday booking (we recommend that this is one of the wedding couple so that we can discuss the booking details with you) regarding your wedding and you must be 18 or older when you book.

When we say "you"/"your" we mean the lead passenger or the wedding couple collectively, depending on the context.

Your TUI UK wedding package cannot be confirmed until we have received your signed Wedding Contract. Your wedding date may be confirmed at a later date in some cases (see Wedding Date Requests below).

The Price You Pay

We will let you know the total cost of your TUI UK wedding package before you book with us. The price provided to you is correct at the date/time that you enquire with us, but as we work with third party suppliers, the total cost may change if you do not book your TUI UK wedding package at that time.

When you make a wedding booking, you must pay a non-refundable wedding deposit. The amount payable varies per venue and ranges from £400 to 100% of the total TUI UK wedding package cost. If you book a complimentary TUI UK wedding package that is available at your hotel, you will not be required to pay a wedding deposit.

We will let you know the exact deposit payable before you book your wedding with us.

If the price of your TUI UK wedding package changes because of movement in the relevant exchange rates, taxes or fees charged by someone else (such as Town Hall fees) we can charge you that increase or refund to you a decrease (less our administrative expenses) providing it doesn't happen within 20 days before the start of your holiday. If we need to do this, we'll let you know.

If the increase is more than 8% of the TUI UK wedding package price, you may cancel your wedding within 14 days of us telling you about the increase and we'll refund your wedding price (excluding any amendment charges).

Your wedding will not be confirmed by us until we receive a signed wedding contract from you with your accompanying non-refundable wedding deposit. Your wedding deposit will be payable by you in addition to your package holiday deposit.

We require full payment for your TUI UK wedding package and package holiday no later than 12 weeks before your departure date. If you don't pay your final balance, we can cancel your TUI UK wedding package and package holiday and charge our standard cancellation fees (as set out in If You Cancel Your Wedding).

When you book your TUI UK wedding package, we will send you a booking confirmation within 14 days. Mistakes can happen, so if any price on your booking confirmation / our website / booking system is obviously wrong, a booking made based on this price won't be valid. We can cancel it and refund you, unless you want to pay the correct price.

Wedding Venues

TUI UK offers hotel venue and external venue wedding packages, which vary per location. If you book a TUI UK wedding package at your hotel (where available), your wedding venue will be at your hotel. If you book a TUI UK wedding package at an external venue (where available), your wedding will be held outside of your hotel at an external location. Your Wedding Contract will identify what venue you have booked for your TUI UK wedding package.

Each hotel/venue has its own specific terms for weddings, which you must satisfy. This may include rules for using external or non-approved service providers (hairstylists, make-up artists, musicians etc), the use of confetti, minimum number requirements, the number of weddings held per day and restrictions of use (list is not exhaustive). The terms that apply at your specific hotel/venue will be set out in your Wedding Contract.

Complimentary Offers - Hotel Weddings Only

Some hotels offer complimentary wedding packages if you meet their minimum eligibility criteria - this varies per hotel. Your Wedding Contract will specify whether a complimentary TUI UK wedding package is available at your hotel and will detail the hotel's minimum eligibility criteria. If you do not meet this, you will be required to pay the full price of the TUI UK wedding package. If you then cancel, our standard cancellation fees will apply (see If You Cancel Your TUI UK Wedding Package).

Wedding Transport

Wedding Car Some TUI UK wedding packages include a wedding car. Your Wedding Contract will confirm if a wedding car is included, how many people can travel in the wedding car and the specified journey. Please note: the make and model of the wedding car is subject to change.

Car Transport for Paperwork Some TUI UK wedding packages include car transport to the local Town Hall (or equivalent) to help you arrange your wedding paperwork. Your Wedding Contract will confirm if car transport is included for this purpose.

Wedding Packages

Your Wedding Contract will list what is included in your chosen TUI UK wedding package. Any items not specifically listed as being included will not form part of our Wedding Agreement with you. Please also see Wedding Extras below.

Wedding Ceremony Options

There are three types of wedding ceremony:
Symbolic wedding – non-legal ceremonies
Legal (civil) weddings – official legal ceremonies
Renewal of Vows – non-legal celebration of marriage ceremonies
Each hotel/venue offers different ceremony options. Your Wedding Contract will list which ceremonies are available at your chosen hotel/venue, along with the prices for you to choose from.

Please note: some hotels/venues require you to book certain ceremony types directly with them. If you wish to change the ceremony type included in your TUI UK wedding package, you'll need to book your TUI UK wedding package first, then contact your wedding co-ordinator, who will help you to arrange this with your hotel/venue (subject to availability). You'll also need to pay any additional fee to your hotel/venue (these are not included in your TUI UK wedding package).

Wedding Receptions

Not all TUI UK wedding packages include a wedding reception in the price. If a wedding reception is included in your TUI UK wedding package, it will be listed as an inclusion in your Wedding Contract.

If a wedding reception is not included in your TUI UK wedding package, you may be able to book one as a wedding extra directly with the hotel/venue (subject to availability). We will not be responsible if you are unable to book a reception at your hotel/venue. Please speak to your wedding co-ordinator to find out what options are available and the hotel/venue's additional fees (this will usually cover food, drink and venue hire for your wedding reception). Any additional fees payable directly to the hotel/venue for your wedding reception are your responsibility and are not included in your TUI UK wedding package. Please also see Wedding Extras below.

Please note: most hotels have strict rules and restrictions on wedding couples using their all-inclusive as part of their wedding reception and won't always allow it. If this is something you are interested in doing, you'll need to discuss this with your wedding co-ordinator.

Wedding Date Requests

When you book with us, we will ask you to provide us with 3 preferred dates, which we will share in order of priority with the hotel/venue. Unfortunately, we cannot guarantee that your preferred date(s) will be available as they are managed locally by the local registrar (or similar) for all wedding venues.

We will let you know if any of your preferred dates are available. If we cannot offer your preferred wedding date(s), we will try to offer you a suitable alternative.

If we cannot offer you a date, you can choose from a full refund of your deposit paid, or a transfer to a suitable alternative holiday and/or wedding, if we can offer one. If you decide to transfer, we will not charge our amendment fees, but you will be responsible for any difference in holiday or TUI UK wedding package cost due on the new booking (we'll refund the difference if the alternative costs less). The deposit paid for your holiday package remains as per your original terms and conditions, but you may need to pay a top up on your TUI UK wedding package deposit.

Please note: some hotels/venues do not operate during the winter months (usually between November and April). Additionally, some Town Halls (or equivalent) in destination only release date availability a year in advance (usually in the spring (March/April)). This means that the availability of your preferred date(s) may not be confirmed for some time, particularly if you are booking your wedding two years in advance.

There may be an out-of-hours fee if you request a late time slot for your wedding ceremony. If you request a late time, we will let you know what this fee is once the date has been confirmed. Any out of hours fees will be payable by you direct to the hotel/venue as a wedding extra.

Terms & Conditions for your wedding package

Book Your Wedding Day

TUI UK work with a third-party company called BookYourWeddingDay.com. They provide instant date and time confirmation at the time of booking for many of the wedding venues we sell. If this includes your venue, you do not need to wait weeks or provide us with 3 preferred date choices, as you'll have your date confirmation instantly.

Please note, BookYourWeddingDay.com have their own terms and conditions on their website and may charge a fee if you book directly with them.

If You Make Changes to Your TUI UK Wedding Package

If you want to make a change to your TUI UK wedding package, you must let us know as soon as possible. Whilst we will try our best to arrange the change requested, it may not be possible. Any change requested is subject to availability.

Some of the wedding service providers may charge a fee for changes to wedding arrangements included in your TUI UK wedding package and sometimes even treat a change as a cancellation. Fees can be up to 100% of the price of the wedding arrangement being changed. You must pay those fees in addition to our amendment fee of £100.

If the change you have requested means that the cost of your TUI UK wedding package increases, you will also be responsible for paying the difference in price. We will refund you the difference, minus the amendment fee if the cost of your TUI UK wedding package decreases.

Please note: If the change you have requested also affects your package holiday booking, the amendment fees set out in If You Change Your Holiday in the Our Agreement will also apply.

If You Cancel Your TUI UK Wedding Package

You must let us know as soon as possible if you wish to cancel your wedding. Please note: you cannot cancel your package holiday without also cancelling your wedding booking.

Since we incur costs when you cancel, you must pay a cancellation fee as outlined below:

If you cancel both your package holiday and TUI UK wedding package, your cancellation fee consists of the cancellation fees set out in If You Cancel Your Holiday of the Our Agreement, PLUS the TUI UK wedding package cancellation fees imposed by the local wedding supplier/hotel/venue*. We will let you know what these fees are when you make your cancellation.

If you cancel your TUI UK wedding package only, you will need to pay the TUI UK wedding package cancellation fees imposed by the local wedding supplier/hotel/venue*. We will let you know what these fees are when you make your cancellation.

Some or all of the wedding arrangements included in your TUI UK wedding package may not be cancellable after they have been booked and any cancellation could incur a cancellation fee of up to 100% of either that part of the arrangements or the cost of the TUI UK wedding package.*

You may be able to reclaim these cancellation fees if the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance.

If you are cancelling because of an event beyond our control (as defined in the Our Agreement section) happening at your destination that significantly impacts the performance of your TUI UK wedding package, you will not have to pay a cancellation fee and will be entitled to a refund. Please note: this does not apply if you are cancelling due to a change of mind, i.e. where the TUI UK wedding package can still be performed.

If We Make Changes to Your Wedding

We aim to give you what we promise, but our TUI UK wedding packages are agreed many months in advance with our local suppliers. This means that very occasionally, we may have to make changes to your TUI UK wedding package. We will let you know as soon as possible if there are any changes.

If we make a major change to your wedding, such as a change to your confirmed wedding time by more than 12 hours, you will have the choice of accepting the change, cancelling and receiving a refund or changing to a suitable alternative (if we are able to offer you one). If we make a major change and you choose to cancel, we'll also pay the compensation shown in If We Change Your Holiday of TUI UK's Our Agreement, except where the change is because of an event beyond our control, as defined in the Our Agreement section.

If We Cancel Your Wedding

Except in circumstances where you have not paid your final balance or you have been disruptive, if we cancel your wedding, we will give you a full refund or you can accept an alternative wedding of a similar standard and price from us (if we are able to offer one). You may also be entitled to compensation as specified in If We Cancel Your Holiday of TUI UK's Our Agreement, except when the cancellation is due to events beyond our control, as defined in the Our Agreement section.

Wedding Legal Documentation and Local Legal Formalities

Whilst we can provide you with general information regarding legal documentation and local legal formalities, it remains your responsibility to pay for and ensure that you have all correct documentation, approvals, translations, seals and legalisation (where applicable) for your wedding.

If you have booked a legal wedding ceremony, some destinations will require you to visit the local Town Hall or Registry Office (or equivalent) before your wedding to complete official paperwork and pay the corresponding fee. Your Wedding Contract or your wedding co-ordinator will confirm if this applies to your TUI UK wedding package.

If you have booked a symbolic wedding ceremony or renewal of vows, you may be required to meet the local celebrant in destination. Your Wedding Contract or your wedding co-ordinator will confirm if this applies to your TUI UK wedding package.

It is essential that you take all required documentation with you when you travel to your wedding destination.

TUI UK is not responsible if you do not meet these requirements by having incorrect, missing or wrong documentation, approvals, translations, seals or legalisation (where applicable).

Local country laws can change at any time, so it is important that you frequently check requirements locally. We recommend that you seek the help of a professional service when organising your wedding documents, obtaining required approvals, translations, seals and legalisation (where applicable). If we know of any professionals locally, we will list their contact details in your Wedding Contract or let you know separately. We can arrange for them to contact you, but only if you provide us with your written consent to share your contact details.

You can also visit the UK Government's website to find the most up to date documentation advice, and see further information on the UK's legalisation process.

Passport and Visa Requirements

You are responsible for ensuring you meet all passport, visa, health and immigration requirements needed to travel to and marry in your destination. We recommend that you confirm these with the relevant embassies and/or consulates. TUI UK is not responsible if you are unable to travel or get married because you have failed to meet all passport, visa, health and immigration requirements.

Minimum Residency Requirements

The wedding couple may need to have checked-in and stayed at their hotel/in destination for a minimum number of days before and/or after their wedding/ceremony day (minimum residency). If you do not meet this requirement, your wedding/ceremony will not be able to take place. The minimum residency applicable to your wedding will be confirmed in your Wedding Contract.

Wedding Extras

We are only responsible for providing the services included in your TUI UK wedding package, as detailed in your Wedding Contract. We are not responsible for any wedding extras that you book (this includes where wedding extras are sold to you by another TUI entity).

Any extras that you desire, which are not included in your TUI UK wedding package, will need to be booked and paid for directly with the hotel/venue/supplier via your wedding co-ordinator or directly (this includes if you make a separate booking for wedding extras with any other TUI entity, such as TUI Greece and TUI Cyprus, for example).

Full payment for wedding extras is usually required before your wedding/ceremony day. Your contract for those extra services will be with the hotel/venue/supplier and not TUI UK. This means that their terms and conditions will apply. We do not accept any responsibility for any extras that you book directly with the hotel, venue(s) or suppliers.

Witnesses

Certain types of wedding ceremony will require the wedding couple to have two (or more) witnesses present to fulfil legal witness requirements. This typically applies to legal wedding ceremonies but may differ per venue. There may also be witness documentation requirements that you will also need to meet. The witness requirements applicable to your chosen wedding ceremony at your hotel will be outlined in your Wedding Contract, but it remains your responsibility to meet any local witness requirements. Please ensure you regularly check these requirements as they may be changed by local authorities at any time.

Luggage allowance

Couples booking one of our TUI UK wedding packages will get 25kg hold luggage each when flying with TUI Airways. Just so you know, TUI Airways flights have a flight number that starts with TOM or BY. If you're flying with another airline, your allowance will be confirmed at the time of booking your package holiday (luggage charges may apply).

Using your Information

All details provided by you will be held by TUI UK and used in accordance with our Privacy Notice available on our website or upon request in our retail stores. To provide you with your booking service, we may share your personal data with the suppliers of your Wedding and Travel Arrangements, including airlines, hotels, venues and transport companies.

Linking Bookings

If you have guests attending your wedding, that are not part of your original booking, please keep a note of their TUI booking references and provide them to us as soon as possible. By providing these references and giving us permission to link them with your booking, it gives us the opportunity to treat you as one wedding party. If you do not provide us with the booking references and permission to link the bookings, we will not know who is included in your wedding party. This is especially important if we have key information to share with all of you regarding your wedding.

Around three months before you travel, the Wedding Contact Centre team will contact you with a form to add everyone's references. If you have not done so by this point, please fill it in and send back to the team.

If your TUI UK wedding package is complimentary, it is important that you have the references at the time of booking as it may impact whether you qualify for the complimentary package.

TUI UK Weddings Service Models Explained

TUI UK operates three service models for its weddings:

TUI-led weddings Many of our weddings held in hotels in Cyprus, Greece, or Turkey are co-ordinated by TUI Group employees*.

Hotel-led weddings These are coordinated by the hotel's wedding co-ordinator, and include some weddings in Cyprus, Greece, or Turkey, and weddings at hotels in all other TUI wedding destinations*.

External venue weddings These are weddings that take place outside of the hotels. A wedding co-ordinator, who partners with TUI, will typically manage these weddings*.

If you book wedding extras via your wedding co-ordinator, they will not form part of your TUI UK wedding package. Please also see Wedding Extras.*

All wedding co-ordinators work closely with you to plan your perfect day, whether they are TUI employees, hotel staff, or external partners.

Terms & Conditions for your wedding package

Contact with TUI UK/Your Wedding Co-ordinator

Once your booking is confirmed, we will provide you with contact details for your wedding co-ordinator. Your wedding co-ordinator will be your main point of contact for your wedding and will help you to get wedding ready.

Please note that for some of our destinations, wedding co-ordinators do not start wedding planning until a couple of months prior to your wedding. If you are marrying in a destination that closes over Winter (often between November and April) you might not hear from anyone until the destination has reopened for the tourism season once again.

You can also contact The Weddings Team if you have any general questions. You'll find the number and other contact details at the end of these Terms and Conditions.

Behaviour

Whilst we appreciate your special day is something to celebrate, we ask that you and your wedding guests refrain from any disruptive behaviour towards other hotel residents, venue guests, employees, agents, partners or property of TUI UK, your hotel or venue.

Disruptive behaviour includes threatening, abusive, disrespectful, annoying, disturbing or dangerous behaviour and damaging/losing property.

If you are disruptive, you will be responsible for any damages, costs and expenses (including legal expenses) incurred as a result. This includes cleaning, repair and/or replacement costs of property lost, damaged or destroyed by you and compensating any individuals affected by your, or your guests, disruptive behaviour.

If you, or any of your wedding guests are disruptive, we can remove you and/or them from the hotel or venue. In these circumstances, you will not be entitled to a refund, compensation, costs or expenses from us.

The above applies in addition to the terms set out in Behaviour in the Our Agreement.

Complaints

Issues are rare, but if they do occur, please let us know as soon as possible so we can resolve the issue for you. You can do this by speaking to your wedding co-ordinator or the hotel/venue/supplier straight away. You can also contact us on 0203 451 2688.

We follow ABTA's Code of Conduct and usually solve any issues but you can use ABTA's ADR scheme for resolving disputes at www.abta.com.

Our agreement with you, and yours with us

We are TUI UK Limited, Company Number 02830117, our Registered Office is Wigmore House, Luton, LU2 9TN and Our Agreement sets out what we can expect from each other when you buy a holiday from us.

Booking Your Holiday

When you book your holiday you are accepting Our Agreement on behalf of everyone travelling with you. We will only deal with you, the lead name, and you must be an adult when you book. Anyone aged under 18 on your holiday must be accompanied by an adult.

When we say "you" and "your" we mean you, as the lead name, or you and everyone travelling, depending on the context.

Our Agreement includes the TUI A-Z Guide, which you can view in full at tui.co.uk/destinations/booking/atozguide the conditions of carriage of the airline or cruise operator and the provisions of international conventions (including the Warsaw, Montreal, Strasbourg and Athens conventions) that apply to travel by air, land, sea or river. Please ask for a copy of any conditions applicable. Our Agreement along with the relevant details in the booking confirmation is the entire agreement between us for your holiday.

Our Agreement is made under the laws of England and Wales. You submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of those courts. You can choose the law and jurisdiction of Scotland or Northern Ireland but only if you live there.

Providing Information

You must ensure all information you give is correct. We'll use the personal data you give us in line with our Privacy Notice. You must pass on any information we give you to everyone travelling.

You must comply with all passport, visa and other immigration requirements. Your passport and travel documents must be in good condition – you may be refused travel if they are damaged.

If you are not self-reliant or have reduced mobility (like finding it hard to walk 500 metres) you must tell us before you book and if this changes tell us at least 48 hours before your holiday.

The Price You Pay

When you book your holiday, you must pay a deposit unless this is within 12 weeks of your holiday when you must pay in full. We'll tell you the price of your holiday and the deposit before you book. At least 12 weeks before you go you must pay the full balance. If you don't, we can cancel your holiday and charge you a termination fee.

When you book your holiday, we'll send your booking confirmation within 14 days. Mistakes can happen, so if any price on your booking confirmation, our website or our booking systems is obviously wrong, a booking made based on that price won't be valid, we can cancel it and refund you unless you want to pay the correct price.

Just so you know, you might also need to pay a tourist tax locally. We'll let you know what the approximate cost of this is before you book with us.

Before Your Holiday

If You Change Your Holiday

Airlines or other transport providers can charge a fee for a change and sometimes treat a change as a cancellation. Fees can be up to 100% of the price for that part of your holiday. You must pay those fees as well as the amendment fee shown below.

When making changes, the price of your new travel arrangements will be based on the price that applies on the day you make the change. If your change means fewer adults travel, and your holiday price is based upon the number of adults, we'll recalculate the total price and the price per person may go up. This extra price isn't a termination fee. You will also need to pay the appropriate proportion of the termination fee for the adult who has cancelled. See "If you Cancel Your Holiday".

Some elements of your holiday, such as excursions, transfers, children's activities, flight or accommodation options, room/board upgrades, late check-out rooms theme park tickets and airport parking, may be non-refundable.

You may transfer your place on the booking to someone else if you give us at least 7 days' notice in writing or by email and the new lead name accepts the transfer and the terms of Our Agreement – insurance can't be transferred. You will be responsible, together with the new lead name, for our amendment fees and any costs as a result of the change.Please note - if everyone on your booking transfers their place to someone else, our standard cancellation charges will apply.

<tr><td>To travel on a later date than planned.</td><td>£50 pp</td><td colspan="3">Treated as a cancellation</td></tr>
</table>

If You Cancel Your Holiday

To cancel your holiday you must tell us as soon as possible. If you booked using a travel agency, that agency must tell us. When your holiday has been cancelled you will receive a cancellation invoice.

You must pay a termination fee which covers our administration costs and compensates us for the risk that we do not resell your holiday. The fee is based upon how long before your holiday you tell us you want to cancel and is a percentage of the total price of your holiday.

How long before your holiday you cancel	Percentage of your holiday price
70 days or more	Loss of deposit
69-63 days	30%
62-49 days	50%
48-29 days	70%
28-15 days	90%
14-0 days	100%

Even if the termination fee is lower than the deposit, your deposit will not be refunded. We may not be able to refund elements of your holiday if they are added extras. If you are cancelling because of an unavoidable and extraordinary circumstance happening at your destination that will significantly impact the performance of your holiday or your flight to get there, you will not have to pay a termination fee and your deposit will be refunded.

If We Cancel Your Holiday

If we cancel your holiday, except where it's because you haven't paid or you have been disruptive, you can have a refund or accept a replacement holiday from us of a similar standard and price if we can offer you one. We'll also pay the compensation shown below (unless we have cancelled because of one of the reasons listed in 'Events Beyond Our Control' or where you haven't paid) and we'll refund the difference if the replacement holiday is of a lower price.

Our agreement with you, and yours with us

If We Change Your Holiday

We aim to give you what we promise but, as we plan our holidays a long time in advance, sometimes things can change. We can make a change at any time but will let you know before your holiday if there's time.

Flight times given are for guidance only – your actual times will be shown on your e-ticket. Check that carefully when you receive it. Aircraft type can change and some facilities such as entertainment or advertised seat pitch may not be available. If we can't provide a seat option, we'll refund the price you paid for that option.

Occasionally, we may have to make a major change to your holiday such as a change of destination, a downgrade of your accommodation by one full star rating, a change in flight time by more than 12 hours or a change of UK departure airport. A change in flight time that we need to make within 24 hours before you are due to fly is not a major change unless the time changes by more than 24 hours.

If we tell you about a major change after you book your holiday, you can accept the new arrangements offered by us; or accept a replacement holiday from us of the same or similar standard and price at the date of the change (we'll always refund the difference in price if the replacement holiday is a lower price at the date of the change), if we are able to offer you one; or cancel your holiday with us and receive a full refund.

If we make a major change, and you choose to cancel your holiday and receive a full refund, we'll pay the compensation shown below, unless the change is because of an event beyond our control. Any compensation payable is based upon how many days before your holiday departure we tell you about a major change. We'll pay 50% of the compensation for each person who paid a child price. No compensation will be paid for free child places.

Events Beyond Our Control

Examples of events beyond our control are: war, threat of war, riots, civil disturbances, terrorist activity or its consequences, industrial disputes, any failure to secure relevant flying rights, natural or nuclear disasters, fire, health risks, unavoidable and unforeseeable technical problems with transport, closed or congested airports or ports, actual or potential severe weather conditions, the imposition of sanctions or other Governmental action and any other similar events.

On Your Holiday

Behaviour

Only you can use your accommodation. You must not let anyone else stay there. You are responsible for any damage to your accommodation or its contents during your holiday.

We can refuse to accept you on your holiday or continue dealing with you if we, or someone in authority, believe your behaviour (by any form of communication or in person) is disruptive. The Captain of your aircraft or ship can restrict your movements on board or remove you.

If you are disruptive and stopped from boarding your flight from the UK, or disruptive during your flight, we'll treat your booking as cancelled by you at that moment. If you are disruptive on your holiday we can remove you from your accommodation and you will be responsible for your own return home and for any other members of your group who cannot or will not travel without you. You will not be entitled to a refund in either case and we will not provide compensation or meet any costs or expenses.

If you are disruptive you will be responsible for any damages, costs and expenses (including legal expenses) incurred as a result. This can include cleaning, repairing or replacing property lost, damaged or destroyed by you, compensating any passenger, crew, staff or agent affected by your actions and diverting the aircraft or ship for the purpose of removing you.

Disruptive behaviour includes being threatening or abusive, damaging property, upsetting, annoying or disturbing any other traveller, our staff or agents or putting any of them in danger.

Excursions

We may introduce you to suppliers of excursions or other services. If you buy one of these, you'll be contracting with the supplier directly, we act only as an agent and have no liability for the performance of that contract. Our Agreement doesn't apply to any contract for excursions or other services.

If Things Go Wrong on Your Holiday

You benefit from the rights applying to packages under The Package Travel and Linked Travel Arrangements Regulations 2018. We are responsible for all the travel services included in your holiday. If any of them isn't provided as we agreed, we'll pay you compensation, if appropriate, unless it's due to an event beyond our control (see 'Events Beyond Our Control'), is your fault or is caused by a third-party.

If you are in difficulty on your holiday we'll help by providing information on health services, local authorities and consular assistance. We'll help you make phone calls, send emails or make alternative travel arrangements. You must pay any costs we incur if the difficulty is your fault.

If You Have A Complaint

It is very rare for things to go wrong. If they do, you must tell the supplier in question (e.g. the hotel) and our representative straight away so they can solve the issue. If our representative isn't available, you should contact our TUI Guest Experience Centre which is open 24/7. If you're still not satisfied, contact After-Travel Customer Support within 28 days of coming home so we can investigate properly.

We follow ABTA's Code of Conduct and usually solve any issues but you can use ABTA's ADR scheme for resolving disputes at www.abta.com.

Personal Injury

Your holiday is made up from services provided by suppliers who follow local standards. Overseas safety standards are generally lower than in the UK.

If anyone travelling suffers injury, illness or death because of the services provided as part of your holiday, you must tell us and the supplier involved about it and complete a report at the time.

After your holiday you can contact After-Travel Customer Support. It must be no more than 3 months after you come home so we can investigate properly. Contact details are at the end of this guide.

Protecting Your Money

We provide security for the money you pay for your holiday and for your TUI UK Wedding Package, and to bring you home in the event we become insolvent. When you buy a holiday from us that includes a flight, we do this by way of an ATOL (number 2524) managed by the Civil Aviation Authority, Gatwick Airport South, RH6 0YR. We also place a bond held by ABTA (V5126), 30 Park Street, London, SE1 9EQ, for holidays that do not include flights.

We've tried to write Our Agreement clearly. Unfortunately, the ATOL rules make us include the next three paragraphs exactly as they're written.

Your Financial Protection

When you buy an ATOL protected flight or flight inclusive package from us you will receive an ATOL Certificate. This lists what is financially protected, where you can get information on what this means for you and who to contact if things go wrong

We, or the suppliers identified on your ATOL Certificate, will provide you with the services listed on the ATOL Certificate (or a suitable alternative). In some cases, where neither we nor the supplier are able to do so for reasons of insolvency, an alternative ATOL holder may provide you with the services you have bought or a suitable alternative (at no extra cost to you). You agree to accept that in those circumstances the alternative ATOL holder will perform those obligations and you agree to pay any money outstanding to be paid by you under your contract to that alternative ATOL holder. However, you also agree that in some cases it will not be possible to appoint an alternative ATOL holder, in which case you will be entitled to make a claim under the ATOL scheme (or your credit card issuer where applicable).

If we, or the suppliers identified on your ATOL certificate, are unable to provide the services listed (or a suitable alternative, through an alternative ATOL holder or otherwise) for reasons of insolvency, the Trustees of the Air Travel Trust may make a payment to (or confer a benefit on) you under the ATOL scheme. You agree that in return for such a payment or benefit you assign absolutely to those Trustees any claims which you have or may have arising out of or relating to the non-provision of the services, including any claim against us, the travel agent (or your credit card issuer where applicable). You also agree that any such claims may be re-assigned to another body, if that other body has paid sums you have claimed under the ATOL scheme.

Where your holiday is protected under the ABTA scheme, you agree to accept that in the event of our insolvency ABTA may arrange for the services you have bought to continue, or for a suitable alternative to be provided at the same cost as your original holiday. You also agree to accept that in circumstances where the travel service provider provides the services you have bought, you agree to pay any outstanding sum under your contract with us to that alternative travel service provider. However, you also agree that in some cases the services will not be provided, in which case you will be entitled to make a claim under ABTA's Scheme of Protection (or your payment card issuer where applicable) for a refund of the monies you have paid.

All money you pay to a travel agent for your holiday is held by that agent on behalf of and for the benefit of the Trustees of the Air Travel Trust at all times but subject to the agent's obligation to pay it to us for so long as we do not fail. If we do fail, any money held at that time by the agent, or subsequently accepted from you by the agent, is and continues to be held by that agent on behalf of and for the benefit of the Trustees of the Air Travel Trust without any obligation to pay that money to us.
